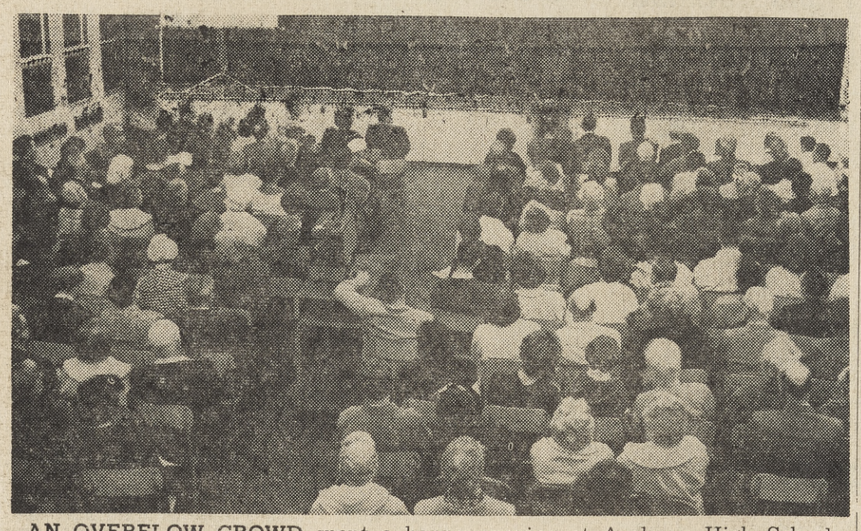
Candidates State Views, Goals



AN OVERFLOW CROWD spent a happy evening at Acalanes High School November 15 when The Sun sponsored a travel night. Movies of Europe were enjoyed and plans were discussed for the Sun Jubilee Tour of Europe in the spring. Here are a few of the more than 350 people who attended. Sun photo by Bob Rush.

County Rapid Transit Hearing Is Thursday

A public hearing on rapid transit plans for Contra Costa County will be held by the Board of Supervisors next Thursday at 10 a.m. in the Hall of Records, Martinez.

Revised plans, including the east-west routing along the north side of the Mt. Diablo freeway, will be presented by representatives of the Bay Area Rapid Transit District.

Opinions by local individuals and groups will be heard by the supervisors, who last week heard a presentation by district representatives.

THE "C" ROUTE which takes the transit tracks from the north side of the freeway into Walnut Creek in the vicinity of the three-level interchange, will be considered.

The route has been approved by transit district directors and their engineering staff. A request for its approval by the City of Walnut Creek has been submitted.

The plans were also revised to extend to Concord and Richmond, after directors were told that the vote might be adverse next June 5 unless those populous cities were included for initial service.

The supervisors may offer the approval or disapproval Thursday, or they may schedule more hearings.

THE TRANSIT plans are also being submitted to supervisors of Alameda, San Francisco and San Mateo Counties, and will be submitted later to the Marin County supervisors if it is determined the Golden Gate bridge can be used to carry the transit trains.

The supervisors in each county will review not only their local county tracks and facilities, but also those of the other counties involved in the $939,000,000 project.

Deadline for a decision by each board is next January.

More than 100 miles of tracks with facilities will be constructed in eight years, if the voters approve the proposal next June 5.

Committee on Unification to Meet Thursday

By DICK OSBORN

The County Committee on School District Reorganization will meet at Acalanes High School Thursday at 8 p.m. to consider acceptance or rejection of the Odell report.

The Odell report, prepared by the Stanford Research Group, recommends total unification of the Acalanes High School District and all the elementary school districts within its boundaries.

Most euementary school district boards have already officially instructed representatives to the augmented committee to vote for rejection of the Odell report.

ONLY THE Acalanes High School board, which has taken no official action yet, has indicated that it favors the report.

What other action, if any, will be taken Thursday night has not been indicated. If the county committee, which has 11 members, votes for acceptance of the report, over the objections of the five elementary school representatives, then the total unification measure will be put to a vote of the people.

If the county board does not vote for the report, then further study will be undertaken, according to Dr Jack Shahbazian, chairman.

HOWEVER, it is possible that any of the elementary school districts involved could propose an alternate plan which could be voted upon by the group.

Such an alternate plan could consist of various forms of vertical unification which would unify one or more of the existing elementary school districts with a portion of the Acalanes High School District.

Letters to The Editor

GAS STATION

Dear Editor:

I read with a good deal of interest your editorial in November 10 Sun, concerning the expansion of the Richfield Service Station in Orinda Village.

You have frequently editorialized concerning the number of gas stations in the greater Orinda area. I can see some merit to the position that you take in that regard and urge you to continue to attempt to persuade the oil companies that there are more than sufficient gas and oil facilities in the area at the present time.

YOUR PLEA to your subscribers to reply with a cut out coupon certainly causes me to not only wonder about your editorial views on the subject are becoming paternalistic, to say the least.

I do not feel that it is your function to attempt to bring pressure to bear upon an existing business concern, when that concern is attempting to be a better participant in the face lifting of a community, and more importantly striving to bring his (or theirs) up to the level of competition.

The latter is so fundamentally an American heritage, that it disturbs me deeply that you would attempt in any way to obstruct an organization that was merely trying to better its competitive situation.

Please take a moment and objectively look at Richfield's current operation. Would you rather have this one in the rather limited parcel of ground they now control or a decent looking operation, that would blend well into the surrounding architecture.

I might also ask, did you editorialize when the supermarkets (and we have an abundant number of these also) expanded and took up the badly needed property that you bemoan losing in your editorial.

In closing, let me state that I am not an employee of Richfield or directly connected in any other way, except that of a reasonably frequent customer. My greatest concern is your editorial approach and the somewhat arbitrary position that you take on behalf of Orindans.

If you have the opportunity, I would appreciate hearing further from you concerning our differences.

E. L. KETCHAM

GAS STATION

(Ed. Note: The following is a copy of a letter sent to Virgil McNab, public relations, Richfield Oil Corporation.)

Occasionally I boycott a business organization when I have been extremely displeased with some action of that organization. For example, I have not purchased one gallon of gasoline from one of your competitors at any of their stations since they opened a large and (to me) unsightly service station close to the center of Orinda Village. If you construct such a station in that locality, I will purchase no more Richfield products.

To be sure that I could carry out this boycott without inconvenience, I counted the gasoline pumps in Orinda Village as I was coming home. In addition to your two at the Orinda Garage, I found seventeen of them open for business, not one of which was in use. No auto was in front of any of the 19 gasoline pumps — not even for free service.

My family and I frequently trade with at least two of the businesses now on the property you presumably propose to use. It is convenient for us to have a variety of facilities in the Village. I do not want to see the shopping area there deteriorate into one long line of supermarkets and super service stations, with much duplication of services, of bright advertising signs, and of large areas of asphalt.

GAS STATIONS

Dear Editor:

I would like to think that there is a more unified feeling on the subject of another large gas station facility for the Orinda Village.

There is a very good reason why numerous local residents occasionally refer to the Village as "gasoline alley."

How many large gas station facilities does a community of 11,000 need, concentrated in an area of one square mile?

Certainly one need not look very far to see the results of an unplanned complex of commercial buildings, and the effect this has in the pride which one feels for his community.

I would like to encourage other residents to make their views known on this latest issue of what you would like to see in Orinda.

Association Told To 'Watch P.H. Developments'

Addressing a meeting of the civic affairs committee of the association Monday night at the Orinda School, Howard urged the group and all Orinda residents to watch developments as Pleasant Hill assumes incorporated city status.

"PRESENT indication is that a considerable savings may be achieved by the Pleasant Hill community as a whole and by the taxpayer through incorporation," Howard told the group.

"It will be interesting to learn just what calibre the services are and how successful," he concluded.

In other business the candidates for election to the board of directors of the association were introduced. (See separate story.)

Members of the civic affairs committee also discussed the formation of a land use advisory committee using consultants from the University of California.

TAKING NO stand on the proposed expansion of the Richfield Station on Orinda Way as a committee, Howard commented, "We have had no official word from the Richfield Corporation as to their intentions and until they make a statement I do not think the association should take a stand."

The committee agreed to send a letter to the East Bay Municipal Utility Company thanking EBMUD for cooperating in abating noise from the Briones Dam.

Longacre Appointment Canceled; Shirey Named

Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors Tuesday canceled the appointment of Joseph R. Longacre to the board of commissioners of the Orinda Fire District.

Longacre, an Oakland-Orinda attorney who lives at 7 La Fond Lane, deleted a portion of the loyalty oath he was required to sign before taking office.

The portion he deleted was one sentence which he believed denied him the right of free speech guaranteed to every American by the Constitution of the United States.

AFTER HE returned the oath with a letter of explanation to the supervisors last week, the board in turn sent him a second affidavit for signature, explaining that it was required of every government employee to sign the oath in full.

Longacre again returned the affidavit, unsigned, with a lengthy letter of explanation which read, in part, ". . . . I signed and had duly notarized a far more comprehensive loyalty oath than is required of the President of the United States by the Constitution of the United States.

"I willing accepted every requirement of that oath except for one sentence that clearly denied me the right of free speech guaranteed to every American, office holder or not, by the Constitution of the United States.

". . . I have made my position clear and unequivocal on the grounds of morality and good conscience, I believe it is even more apparent that I would be deprived of my constitutional rights if I were forced to swear to this provision in order to hold public office.

I MUST therefore submit that your board does not have legal grounds to deprive me of this appointment, if I am otherwise qualified, as you have so generously indicated.

"Therefore, I request that my qualifications be submitted to the district attorney to uphold my rights as a citizen and office holder under their jurisdiction, and that the district attorney be requested to take the legal steps required to have this provision of the oath declared null and void under the provisions of the Constitution of the United States and thereby uphold and defend my right to accept the duties of the office to which I was appointed.

"The choice is clear. If the county authorities do not choose to uphold my constitutional rights, then I must seek a writ of mandate from the courts to enforce my rights, in which case the district attorney will be required to defend a state requirement that is onerous to every American.

"I think it is high time that thousands of our citizens who must sign an otherwise patriotic oath to earn an honest living, be protected from this single, morally degrading provision."

SUPERVISOR Mel Nielsen made a motion at the board meeting Tuesday to refer the matter to the district attorney and requested a week's delay in the board decision on Longacre.

The motion was turned down Supervisor Edmund Linscheid of Pittsburg moved to cancel Longacre's appointment. "Others have signed the oath. Its been tried and upheld," he said.

The board named Frank Shirey of 69 Hillcrest Drive to serve in Longacre's place.

"Since my appointment was never confirmed and someone else has been appointed to serve in the position, I will have to do some research on the legal technicalities of the situation before determining any further course of action," Longacre commented.

"If by our democratic judicial process, the courts decide that I am wrong, that the state does have the power and reason to require this stipulation in the oath, then I will abide by the law of the land and willing sign this oath in full," he concluded.

Holdup Suspect's Bail Is $50,000; Arrest by Force

A 27-year-old Redwood City man was charged with robbing the Central Valley National Bank in Orinda and the First Savings and Loan Association in Walnut Creek Monday in San Francisco.

Thomas Norman Lindsay, an unemployed tile setter, resisted FBI men who took him into custody in a Redwood City (San Mateo County) card room, last Friday, according to testimony before U.S. Commissioner Donald Constine.

Bail was set at $50,000, after an FBI man said he feared Lindsay would try to jump bail.

THE CASE will go before the federal grand jury in San Francisco, Wednesday, and if an indictment is handed down, Lindsay will be arraigned the next day by U.S. District Court Judge Alfonso Zirpoli.

If no indictment is handed down, a preliminary examination will be held by U.S. Commissioner Constine next Thursday.

A robber wearing sunglasses and a golfer type hat escaped with about $3000 from Orinda's Central Valley Bank November 9, and a man answering the same description escaped with more than $3000 from the Walnut Creek First Savings November 15.

In each case, the bandit held a gun on the woman teller, and let a handwritten note do the talking for him.

HE TOLD the Orinda teller, "Make it snappy."

He told the frightened Walnut Creek teller, "Hurry it up."

In both cases, the bandit appeared just after the noon hour, stuffed the money into a brown box and disappeared out the front door, eluding pursuers.

Court Plans Public Session Next Tuesday

Several plans for reorganizing Contra Costa County's municipal and judicial courts will be evaluated by County Administrator Joseph McBrien and considered in public hearing Tuesday beginning at 2 p.m. in the Hall of Records.

There will be McBrien's plan for total unification of all the courts into one court, plans by State Chief Justice Phil Gibson and the county bar association for limited unification, and others.

The matter was earlier delayed when McBrien asked for more time to prepare his evaluation.

The supervisors were reluctant to postpone it, but did so by a 3-2 vote, with supervisors James Kenny and Joseph Silva dissenting.

Orinda Association Board Ballots Mailed

Ballots were mailed today for the election of members of the board of directors of the Orinda Association. Bruce Howard, association president, said the deadline for returning ballots is December 8.

A special committee formed from the board of directors will count the ballots December 11 and those nominated will be notified by phone immediately, according to Harry Fledderman, chairman, civic affairs committee.

Statements from the candidates seeking election to the board of directors of the Orinda Association are as follows:

Upper Miner Road, Charles Hill District, candidates are John Cutter and Byron Nelson.

JACK CUTTER

"Now and in the coming years we shall see an increasing pressure to change Orinda from a peaceful residential community into a high density city.

"Presently our county is absorbing 1400 new residents per month. Many of these people will locate in Orinda. They will want to live among those rolling hills and magnificent oaks. The very features which attract these people are in danger of being lost in the shuffle.

"The Orinda Association is one of our chief protectors against an unrestrained exploitation of our community. Its effectiveness depends upon its membership. A strong and vigorous membership is something I would work toward.

"I believe this can be attained by a first class selling job through the member organizations. I urge a continuance of our present policies with a greater emphasis on membership."

BYRON NELSON

"As a realtor and resident of Orinda since 1930 I hope to contribute experience that may be helpful in planning the progress of our community.

"There is a definite need at this time to try to coordinate the efforts of several factions toward one that will be beneficial to all in Orinda and in the county."

Candidates for the Hillside, El Toyonal district are Harry Fledderman and Harry Miller. No statement was available from Miller at the time The Sun went to press.

HARRY FLEDDERMAN

"I have been a resident of Orinda for seven years and am a native of the East Bay area. I reside at 10 Los Conejos with my wife Barbara and three children and am a corporation lawyer-executive.

"It has been my privilege to serve as chairman of the Civic Affairs Committee of the Orinda Association during the past two years and thereby an ex-officio member of the association's board of directors. I was president of the Hacienda Improvement Association (oldest and largest in Orinda) for two years and was a director (four years) and president of Hacienda Homes. I am presently president of the Orinda School Parents Club.

"The Orinda Association is a vital community representative organization. It must preserve the character of the community and its values while guiding its inevitable growth in a compatible and reasonable manner consistent with the wishes of the residents.

"To be more effective we should strive to make the association stronger and truly representative by broadening the base of its support and participation. We must also plan for the utilization of the valuable Orinda Association land in a sensible way.

"I believe that my experience in community affairs gives me an understanding of the problems facing Orinda and the ability to represent effectively the best interests of all residents."

MIKE BALL

"I have lived in Oak Springs with my wife Susan at 2 Spring Court for two years and a half and presently serve as president of the Oak Springs Home Owners Association.

"I am a graduate of the University of California, Los Angeles, in business administration. I served three years in the U. S. Coast Guard and am now a data processing sales representative for I.B.M. in San Francisco.

"I am particularly interested in the careful investigation of any Orinda zoning changes and in the development of park and recreation facilities.

"To achieve these goals I will strive to give the Orinda Association my best efforts."

MARVIN CARLILE

"I submit that I am particularly qualified for the position of director of the Orinda Association.

"The problems of Contra Costa County have been known to me for a long time. I grew up and was educated by the schools in this county. Except for the armed services and nine years in Arabia with the Arabian-American Oil Company, Contra Costa County has been my home. I have resided in the Orinda community for most of the last four years.

"I am vice president and a member of the board of Central Stationers, Inc. As a member of that firm, I am serving the business community of Richmond as a director of the Businessmen's Association for Richmond.

"There are three specific areas that present increasing problems to Orinda: Residential and business expansion; rapid transit, and the threat of metropolitan unification.

"I would assist the Orinda Association in its continuous efforts to direct the inevitable expansion of this area within sensible limits. Both our building restrictions and Orinda's

Mike Lynn, Host With the Most . . .

A TOAST TO MINE HOST Mike Lynn who plays the role of Host to the hilt at his popular Orinda dining and meeting spot, his full-time business and life-long hobby, combining people and good food in a congenial atmosphere.

THE personable Irish gentleman who has been in the restaurant business 22 years, this holiday season celebrates his third year in Orinda. Be it family night out, a special occasion, a club meeting or a special event for a crowd, Mike lends his own touch and trademark to whatever the affair or the menu. Where else do they roll out the red carpet with such a grand flourish for a child's birthday—complete with gold crown, sirens and songs, pretty pink gift packages, a personal photograph and additional surprises too numerous to mention. (Anniversaries, too!)

A DESCENDANT of the California pioneer Lynns who first settled in King City, Mike's old family homestead is at Antioch while he and his wife Jill now live in Claremont Pines where her magic green thumb keeps the restaurant filled with fresh flowers. Helpmate Jill also spends three to four hours daily at Mike Lynn's arranging the fresh bouquets as well as handsome artificial ones, into breathtaking floral creations . . . The Lynns' private antique silver collection comes out of wraps for special functions there and Jill shares her magnificent Meissen collection by displaying it in the lobby showcase.

Pilgrim's Progress . . .

WHAT A LONG WAY WE'VE COME in this Young Land of Ours . . . Father doesn't have to go out & shoot the bird & Mother doesn't have to churn butter or grind cornmeal for dressing . . .

From the rough-hewn logs of the Pilgrims' Thnksgiving table, to Danish moderne w/drip-dry linens, Spode & silverware.

THE DAIRY products are delivered to the door by the milkman & no one has to coax the cream out of a cow pasteuring off the patio.

THE SUPER-DUPER MARKETS are a blinding array of shiny cans & tempting labels for the holiday fare . . . WHERE else in the world can you choose from fifty bagged varieties of candies or cookies . . . or take your pick of six brands of pumpkin for the pie & JUST as many kinds of the frozen variety if baking is not your forte?

THE COUNTERS are a cornucopia of fruits & vegetables in season, each one a work of art by old Dame Nature . . . polished & waxed, plump & pretty . . . & the same counters spilling forth walnuts, almonds, pecans, chestnuts & brazils too wondrous to behold.

Imagine the time it took a Pilgrim child to collect enough nuts for one meal or enough berries to fill a bowl?

WHEN THE HOLIDAY SEASON approaches & more time is spent shopping for special foods, more time is spent IN the kitchen, then we pause to reflect on all the good things that are ours . . .

THE BEST THINGS IN LIFE: The spanking clean countryside after a first hard rainfall . . . The slick slippery roadways that climb hillsides to your warm house & mine . . . A basket of mums gathered from the garden . . . A bouquet of golden brown leaves, crisped & curled, to grace the table.

Blessed be the Tie . . .

Old Friends & Auld Lang Syne: Big Game tickets resting in a bureau drawer . . . (A weekend like this that includes Thanksgiving & Big Game you really need the strength of your forebears!)

A child's fingerprints on the rolled-out pie dough . . . An impatient paddy dipping into the olive dish . . . Silver & Candlelight & straight-backed fathers in straight-backed chairs . . . A pillow on the dining room chair for a little guest's wide-eyed First Thanksgiving UP w/the big folks.

THANKFUL FOR THESE: A long-distance call home, the amazement of direct dialing to 3000 miles away & a sudden dear, familiar "Hello? . . ." The cards & letters from long-distance relatives in faraway places all for the price of a small postage stamp . . . A telegram message that brings happy tears.

THE TIE THAT BINDS: The children trying to be cherubic while their tongues are hanging out waiting for the turkey . . . Boys & girls, cousins by the dozens, renewing friendships, playing games on their favorite place, the floor . . . or hearing that same wonderful story from Grampa again . . . "Tell us about the time . . ."

A new apron around Mama's middle . . . A gravy spot on father's brand new tie . . . "DIBS," from the kids, "on the drumsticks" . . . & Who's for mince, pecan & pumpkin pie? (Why don't you give each kind a little try?)

A THANKSGIVING DAY is more than just one day . . . It's all the other Thanksgivings—of your childhood, of your newly-married years, of your first turkey, of your first child . . . & remembering, relates it closer to the Pilgrims' First Thanksgiving . . .

TWO WELL-KNOWN & favorite Orindans will be muchly missed . . . We mean Mildred Farrar & Ben Randall.

Mildred, of the brilliant mind, the valiant soul, who gave so much to her community when she lived here a few years back & was active in planning & scouting circles throughout the county.

BIG BEN, our Mr. Movie to the moppets, Mr. Orinda to many of the oldtimers here . . . Said one couple: "Why, when we moved here 15 years ago, Ben WAS Orinda . . ."

Ben . . . of the big shoulders, the quiet smile, the merry twinkle & the bushy eyebrows . . . "Gosh," said one tousle-haired boy, "He was just about perfect . . . like a second father to me . . ." From another boy, this one fatherless: "He always had a good word . . . 'Hi Fella,' he'd say, 'Got any problems?' He was like a father to me . . ."

FROM A GROUP of teenagers . . . "He handled us just right. If we got out of line, he got after us in just the right way."

It will seem strange not to hear the kids calling "Hi, Mr. Randall . . ." The monies derived from the testimonial theater party will be used to purchase playground equipment in his name for the schools. Perhaps at some future time, someone or some group will see fit to purchase photographic equipment (or movie equipment) for the schools in his name for these were Ben's favorite things . . . Next to the kids that came to his theaters.

Christmas Comes Early . . .

EARLY CHRISTMAS PRESENTS: A brand new boy, Thaddeus Robert, makes it even-steven, three boys, three girls, for Dentist Gene & Joan Garbarino. The Stork thereby upstaging Santa—a month ahead of schedule!

Another early present for JUDY MYER, darling dghtr. of the Richard Myers, who has been chosen for the '62 edition of "Who's Who in American Colleges & Universities . . ." based on personality, activities, scholarship & contributions to school, that being Univ. of Arizona where she will be a Senior.

LUCKY SCOUTS Janet Jones, Ann Clyatt, Leslie Smith & 1st alternate Judy Swanson and Mariner Roberta Nichols have been chosen to represent Diablo Girl Scouts at the International Roundup in Button Bay State Park, Vermont. The girls were selected after a rigorous screening for leadership, achievements, etc. & will now start counting the days till next July when they'll camp on the shores of Lake Champlain.

HELEN & GEORGE VUREK will be putting stuffed Teddy Bears under their tree for their first little grandchild who arrived just a week ago . . .

TWO YOUNG LITERARY ladies copped prizes in the annual Holmes Book Store "My Favorite 'Book" contest during Children's Book Week . . . A second prize in the 6-8 group got Lisa Adams (Cornelia & Dan's darling) her very own choice of $15 worth of books . . . while Leona & Charles Wilson's Cindy won an Honorable Mention in the same age group w/$5 worth of her reading likes. Congratulations!

SMALL TALK: Lid & Kirk Miles home from a salubrious stay in Carmel . . . ditto Stella & Bob Boyle who duoed w/Caroline & Jim Read for a recent stay there & bumped into former Orindian Jean Cullen on the streets of Carmel. Phyll Hartanov among the recent Christmas shoppers browsing the village stores there w/her houseguest in tow.

"O Say can you see, Dede McKee . . . Between eye Doctor & head Doctor, how hurt can one be? Ask Dede McKee . . . who fell from her horse, has a penchant for same. In doctor offices daily, she plays waiting game . . . Poor Dede McKee . . . How hurt can she be!"

MORE HOUSEGUESTS: Former Orindan Pat Oakes is having a holiday visit w/the Robert Case family. She's down from studies at Oregon w/her contemporary Mimi, dghtr. of Bob & Hilja . . . The new Orinda Travel Service is owned by long-time localites Bill & Pat Sergeant whose beautiful Shangri-La home out Bear Creek Rd. was sha-boomed by the new Dam. They now live in Happy Valley.

Don't forget to get your own Indians over to Fellowship Hall at Orinda Community Church tomorrow 10-12 for Freddie Curtis's program on "Indians Of California."

SAVE TUESDAY night next for an outstanding speaker at a Friends Of The Orinda Library meet, 8 PM in the library . . . He is Dean J. D. Lohman of the School of Criminology at UC who will talk on "The Changing Shape of Crime." Together w/his family, he is a recent newcomer to Orinda from Chicago.

Tuesday night, too, the Perc Brown's gift book, "Samuel Johnson's Dictionary of the English Language" will be on display as will prize watercolors by Orindan Robert Jensen.

Final Rites Are Said for Retired U.C. Professor

Funeral services for Dr. Nicholas L. Taliaferro, who was killed instantly in an automobile accident November 16, were held Wednesday afternoon in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Walnut Creek.

Mrs. Taliaferro, who was injured in the accident, was released from Merritt Hospital to attend the service, but will return for further treatment

The Taliaferro home is at 160 Alderwood Road in Walnut Creek.

In addition to his widow, Dr. Taliaferro, retired University of California geology professor, is survived by two sons, Anthony of Lafayette and Nicholas, who lives near Long Beach, California. A half-brother, Joseph Walton, lives in San Francisco.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Bayview Chapel of Freeman and Cox-Roach and Leonard, with cremation at Mountain View Crematory.

Dr. Taliaferro was graduated from U.C. in 1913 and returned as a geology instructor in 1918 after three years in China working for Standard Oil Company of New York and a year with the United States Bureau of Mines.

Dr. Taliaferro received his Ph.D. from the university in 1920 and left to work as a consulting geologist in Alaska and Mexico and later as chief geologist for the Ventura Consolidated Oil Company.

He returned to the Berkeley campus in 1926 as an associate professor and became a full professor in 1935. He took over as head of the geology department two years lated. He headed the department for 10 years, until 1946, and retired from teaching in 1958.

Dr. Taliaferro was listed in Who's Who on the Pacific Coast and in American Men of Science. He was a fellow of the Geological Society of America and a member of the Seismological Society of America, Tau Beta Pi, Theta Tau, Sigma Xi and Beta Theta Pi fraternities.

SANDPAPER STORAGE

Use an old phonograph record album as a storage book for sandpaper and other abrasive sheets. Put each grade of abrasive in a separate sleeve and label so that each one can be quickly located.

Del Rey Book Fair Scheduled

The Del Rey Parents' Club will sponsor a Christmas Book Fair next Friday from 10 a.m. to 12 noon in the school library.

Mrs. Alfred G. Hopp, library chairman, has arranged the program and cordially invites all parents of children at Del Rey School to attend. Mrs. Fredericks, the school librarian, will give a short talk on children's books and will present a display of new books which she has selected as suitable for Christmas giving.

Parents may take this opportunity to order both books and records, and the proceeds from these orders will go to the parents' club. Mrs. Fredericks will be available for consultation following the program.

December 3, from 2 to 4 p.m., the Del Rey Parents' Club is sponsoring a demonstration of Christmas crafts and decorations—items which all members of the family can make together.

This demonstration and display will be presented in the kindergarten room, according to Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson, ways and means chairmen. All Del Rey parents are invited to bring their children to this program, since Christmas crafts suitable for all ages will be shown.

Moraga Road Widening Is Completed

Mel F. Nielsen, supervisor of District II, announced today that the board of supervisors accepted as complete, the contracts with Gallagher & Burk, Inc. of Oakland and Walnut Creek for the reconstruction of Moraga Road.

The two projects are the final stages of a program providing four 12-foot traffic lanes and two eight-foot parking lanes from Rheem Blvd. to Donald Drive.

The curb, gutter and sidewalk was constructed by the abutting property owners with the exception of a portion replaced by the road widening. The property required for the widening was donated by the adjacent property owners.

This widening will improve access to the Rheem Shopping Center and, as funds become available, it is proposed to extend improvements south to Moraga and north to Lafayette to serve this rapidly developing area.

8 Guns Taken From EBMUD In Orinda

Eight guns were taken from the EBMUD Forestry Headquarters at 500 Camino Pablo, Orinda, last Saturday night.

Edward Bruno reported the burglary after a company patrolman discovered the burglary early Sunday morning.

Seven shotguns, a rifle and two pairs of field glasses were taken, according to sheriff's deputies.

The patrolman, Alcon L. Paulson, noticed that a transistor radio was missing from his pick-up truck when he arrived for work Sunday.

After checking the storeroom, he noticed that the gun storage cabinet was open.

Upon investigation, it was discovered that a screen was removed from an office window and the glass broken.

The building was completely searched by the burglar. A bar was used to pry open the gun cabinet, but an attempt to pry open a storeroom of confiscated guns and fishing equipment was unsuccessful.

EBMUD officials estimated that the merchandise was worth approximately $500.

Dealers Honored

James E. Hendrickson and Marsden McDonald, local Richfield dealers, were given recognition by the oil firm at a Dealer Club dinner in Concord Thursday evening for their 10 years in the service station business. They operate the station known as Orinda Motors, at 63 Orinda Way.

The dinner event, hosted by Richfield for its dealers and their wives, was held at the Concord Inn in Concord and was attended by couples from the Contra Costa and Alameda County area. The anniversary dinners are promoted by the oil firm for its dealers having five or more years tenure as service station operators.

Soroptimists Hear Jurist

She explained her plan to inform the public in traffic violation and accident prevention through education.

Lunch Is on The Table . .

Next week's luncheon menus in the Orinda Union School District's cafeterias will feature the following foods. Milk is served with each meal.

Wednesday—Spaghetti with meat sauce, mixed green salad, French bread, fruit jello.

Friday—To be announced.

Plans Detailed For Christmas Program, Decor

Final plans for a Spanish-style Christmas on both the village and crossroads sides of Orinda were made at a recent meeting in the El Verano Road home of Mrs. Joseph Conley, chairman of the festivities.

Decoration of the two large trees will be the special charge of the Orinda, Hilltop, and Orinda Valley garden clubs. Seventeen Girl Scout troops are presently creating the tin ornaments for the trees and surrounding shrubs, which will also be embellished with poinsettias and glistening plastic streamers.

ROBERT MOOG will supply the street banners of styrofoam letters wishing everyone "Feliz Navidad," and Mrs. Irene Wilkenson and Mrs. Fran McBane are constructing two pinatas of fluorescent vinyl material donated by Harold Locklin of Radiant Color, complete with a shining fall of plastic ribbons given by Ralph Hickcox of Dymo Industries.

Mrs. John Boyen is serving as technical advisor on the Mexican pageantry involved, coaching the children in a Spanish version of "Silent Night," and a lullaby which is part of the "Las Posadas" festival in her native Morelia, Mexico. Mrs. Boyen staged a professional "Las Posadas" for Holy Names College in recent years.

Service clubs and merchants in the area are giving their enthusiastic support to the project.

UNICEF Drive Nets $489.77

Orinda chairman for UNICEF, Mrs. Rudolph Grah, in behalf of all those who helped with UNICEF, has expressed thanks to those who participated Halloween night, particularly the children.

Mrs. Grah, in thanking those who contributed, explained, "The United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund, known as UNICEF, in cooperation with other UN agencies, is bringing health and new hope to families in 91 countries. Wherever UNICEF operates the local government pays at least half the cost and will eventually take over the work.

"To date UNICEF-aided campaigns have given tuberculosis vaccinations to 43,000,000 young people, protected millions from malaria, cured children of leprosy and trachoma. Perhaps the most spectacular project is the campaign against yaws, a disease that is usually cured by a single shot of penicillin. Mothers bring their children to the rural health centers UNICEF is helping to set up in 50 countries. And many of the hundred of millions of hungry children in faraway lands are receiving a daily milk ration.

"ALL OF this is made possible," Mrs. Grah continued, "by the 'Pennies for UNICEF' drive which many of our Orinda children with the black and orange carton went out on Halloween night for the world's children. Many pounds of pennies were collected and many nickles, dimes, quarters, 50 cent pieces, dollar bills too, were given with the total for Orinda, a 46 per cent increase over 1960, being $489.77. The total for Contra Costa County is $5000."

Chamber Plans Coordinated Yule Plays

Merchants present at the meeting expressed their willingness to cooperate with the Orinda Beautification Committee by tying store displays in with the prevailing motif of street decorations.

Clarence Betz, secretary, discussed with the merchants the growing parking problem. It was agreed that every effort should be made to inform commuters that private parking lots were for the benefit of shopping Orinda residents.

Plans were made to print signs to discourage motorists from using privately leased parking areas for all-day parking.

Orinda Association Board Ballots Mailed

"I invite rapid transit and am aware of the complex problems it presents to Orinda. The contruction of depot facilities consistent with the orderly and asthetic nature of this community must be encouraged. But rapid transit should not be allowed to "steamroll" through Orinda merely because of the convenience it promises.

"Today we witness the controversy over unification of our schools, but metropolitan unification is also an ominous threat. The expanding thirst of incorporated municipalities to envelope new areas cannot be overlooked. The Orinda Association must be prepared on this issue.

"I fully realize the issues I have raised do not fully describe all of the problems facing the Orinda Association. But as a director of this association I am certain I would be able to carry out its policies and purposes to continue this association as an effective organization.

"In short, whatever the problems that may arise in this community, I want the Orinda Association to stand up and be counted. Vote for Marv Carlile, director."

Candidates for the Sleepy Hollow district are Robert Moe and William Brobeck. No statement was available from Moe at the time The Sun went to press.

WILLIAM BROBECK

"I am very much interested in preserving and improving the values of Orinda as a residential area. I believe that the Orinda Association can and does act in the best interests of the present and future residents to support community improvements and to resist undesirable changes. I hope to be able to contribute to this effort."

JAMES KEATING

"James C. Keating has lived in Orinda for three years, in Contra Costa County for 16 years. He is a chemical engineer with the Standard Oil Company.

"Currently he is a director of the Orinda Association and is seeking re-election. In the past year he has served as the board representative to the civic affairs committee.

"I want the Orinda Association to continue to be a responsible and effective voice of the community, helping to shape the orderly development of Orinda in accord with the will of the residents."

RACHEL KOEHLER

"My husband and I have been residents of Orinda for the past 10 years, during which time our community has grown tremendously. My husband is a businessman in Orinda and Oakland.

"We have three children and are members of Santa Maria's parish. I am now serving my second non-successive term as president of the Lost Valley Community Association.

"I am interested in seeing Orinda develop, but not too rapidly. I would like to see some community effort to investigate the causes and possible remedies of our sky-rocketing property taxes which are actually affecting real estate salesability here, where the homes and countryside are otherwise so desirable.

"I would like to see a concentrated community effort on the part of merchants and homeowners to stimulate and encourage the employment of teenagers in high school and college.

"The way is made too difficult to the teenagers who wish to work for experience and wages and too easy for them to congregate and use their time uselessly and sometimes mischievously. In this situation everyone looses—the merchant, the teenager and the community.

"I would also like to see a study made as to the advisability of a fallout shelter protection plan for our own particular area which has many unique advantages and disadvantages. This study report should be made available to all Orinda residents and let them decide what course of action or inaction they choose to take.

"If I am elected to the board of directors of the Orinda Association, I would do my utmost to see these suggestions considered and acted upon as vigorously as possible and to be alert to the problems confronting the board."

ERIC LOUCHIS

"I was born and educated in New Orleans, Louisiana and graduated from Tulane University in engineering. I served on active duty in the Navy at the end of World War II. I am presently employed by Kaiser Aluminum in Oakland.

"I have resided with my wife, Maxine and three sons in Orinda since 1956 in the Inland Valley area. Presently I am a member of the board of directors of Moraga Valley Pool, having served as vice president last year.

"I am also active presently in the building committee of St. Marks Methodist Church now under construction."

R. BRUCE HOFFE

"I am an attorney practicing in San Francisco and have lived in Orinda for the past five or six years. I am married and am the father of three children, two of whom attend Inland Valley School. The third is pre-school age.

"My educational background is composed of public schools in Berkeley, California, with college and law school at the University of California in Berkeley.

"I have lived in the Bay Area for my entire life with the exception of two years with the Navy during World War II.

"It is my firm belief that Orinda is one of the finest areas in which a person can live here in California, and I believe that, with proper public interest, we can maintain the high standards previously set.

"There are of course, numerous problems facing the residents of this area at the present time, and I feel that my background is such that I can be of service to you if I am elected to the board of directors of the Orinda Association."

Miramonte Seminar Will Study 'Artist at Work'

John Richards, assistant director of the Richmond Art Center and well-known local artist, will speak at the Miramonte Humanities Seminar on the subject "The Artist at Work" Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the high school.

Meetings are held each Wednesday evening and offer students an opportunity to hear lectures by specialists in subjects in the field of humanities. Students break up into small discussion groups after the seminar.

Donald Fleming heads the program committee, Leonard Odenthal, the discussion leaders and Mrs. Richard Leland is in charge of administration.

Ben Randall Sr. Dies After Long Illness

Benjamin B. Randall Sr., of 21 Donald Drive, Orinda, died November 17 in an Oakland hospital, after a lengthy illness.

A theater manager in this area for 20 years, he died just four days after a testimonial dinner was given in his honor by members of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary and Lions clubs.

Funeral services were held Monday in Orinda Community Church, Reverend Chauncey Blossom officiating. Interment was at Lafayette Cemetery.

'Anything Goes' Cast Announced

The cast has been announced for "Anything Goes," a Cole Porter production to be presented in January by the Contra Costa Musical Theater.

The musical comedy will be held January 5-6 and 12-13 at Mt. Diablo High School auditorium.

Camille Pedrazinni of Walnut Creek, a former USO entertainer, will take the lead role of Reno Sweeny, night club proprietress.

Other players are: Emily Van Cleve of Concord, "Doc" Scortt of Lafayette, Barbara Butler of Concord, Bill and Milli Hoelscher of Concord.

Hair Cut Hike Is Possible

"Adults: $2.25; children, $1.75."

Barbers in central and eastern Contra Costa will decide December 19 if they will post this sign. The rates have been $2 for adults and $1.50 for children since January, 1957.

The increase would finance hospitalization and vacation benefits for 200 members of Barbers Union Local 917, said Michael Capalety, local president.

The youngsters would pay adult prices on Saturdays and holidays, Capalety said.

A 25-cent increase was voted down in September by local 508, which has members in El Cerrito, San Pablo and El Sobrante.

Walk or Evacuate? High School Parents Decide

Do you as a parent of an Acalanes Union High School District student want your child evacuated by available transportation or sent home on foot, in the event of a disaster or civil defense alert?

Parents have been asked to indicate their preference in a letter from District Superintendent Neil Parsons.

"Students who are designated as evacuees by their parents will be sent over an evacuation route established by civil defense authorities," said Parsons.

Students designated as walkers will be sent home on foot.

EVACUEE transportation will be made up of student and employee cars on campus. Any school busses which may be available for the evacuation will be reserved for the use of elementary school children.

"Under the one-way traffic pattern to be imposed by civil defense it will be impossible to operate the regular bus system or have parents attempt to come to school for their children and return home, Parsons added.

Student non-evacuees will also be unable to drive their cars home.

The procedure is planned to meet the emergency in case of a yellow alert (warning of approaching attack).

HOWEVER, because of the decreased amount of time it would take an enemy to reach its targets it is possible that CD officials might ring a red alert first.

Following such a red alert attack, and providing conditions permit, "evacuees" and "walkers" would then follow the same directions as under a regular yellow alert.

Each high school maintains and updates its file on parent wishes regarding their student in the event of a disaster. A file taken from a similar parent poll several years ago is on hand at each school.

Parsons said, "The district does not know all of the answers or the variables possible in such a disaster.

"The disaster plan is based on the best advice available from CD experts and it has their approval," he declared.

Local Elks Offering Youth Leadership Prizes

Dean Spurgeon, exalted ruler of the Elks Lodge No. 1811, Walnut Creek, announced details of the 12th annual Elks National Youth Leadership Contest.

The purpose of the contest, said Spurgeon, is to recognize and honor boys and girls whose initiative, individualism, diligence and accomplishments in school activities, youth organizations, church and community affairs have caused their associates to look to them for leadership.

"Since these are the young men and women on whom the nation will depend for leadership in the years ahead," said Spurgeon, "it is of the most vital importance that we single them out for recognition now, do all possible to encourage them in the development of their talents."

SPURGEON said that besides their leadership records, contestants will be judged on Americanism and citizenship appreciation, perseverance, resourcefulness and sense of honor.

The contest is open to boys and girls under 19 years of age, who will compete in separate divisions in local, state and national competitions.

A $100 savings bond will be given to the boys and $100 bond will be given to the girls if they are the state contest winners.

NATIONAL awards, identical for boys and girls, are: first place, a $1000 savings bond; second place, $500 bond; and third place, $300 bond.

First place winners in the national contest will appear at the Elks National Convention in Chicago next July to receive their awards, according to Joseph F. Bader of Lyndhurst, New Jersey, chairman of the orders youth activities committee.

The local committee has Glen Max, chairman; Marshall Maguire, Dean Spurgeon and Rowland Barrett.

Contest entry forms and further information may be obtained from Max at Murwood School, or Jack Davis, secretary and manager, Walnut Creek Elks Club. The deadline is next Friday.

Opera for Children Will Open with 'Don Pasquale'

Two performances December 2 of Donizetti's "Don Pasquale" will open the 1961-1962 season of the Children's Opera Hours—the first performance will be presented at 10:30 a.m. at Stanley School, Lafayette, and the second at 3 p.m. at the Anthony Chabot School in Oakland.

Three operas will be performed in the series which is presented by the Junior League of Oakland and the San Francisco Opera Guild of the East Bay. The project's aim is to give children from eight to 12 a gay and light-hearted introduction to opera.

The programs are abbreviated English versions of the operas and are narrated by Miss Peggy Donovan of the University of California Music Department. Roles will be sung and acted by costumed artists of the Talent Bank of the San Francisco Opera Guild.

Donizetti's "Elixir of Love" will be presented January 27, 1962, and Rossini's "Barber of Seville," March 3.

A special adult evening performance of the Barber of Seville will be given March 3 of next year.

All concerts will be presented twice. Season tickets are available for $1 for children and $3 for adults. Seating reservations may be made for parties and special groups by calling OL 3-7160 or CL 4-8441. Tickets may be obtained by writing to the Children's Opera Hours, 7240 Chabot Road, Oakland, or purchased at the door before performances.

Members of the Opera Hours committee include the Mesdames Richard Crouse, Robert von der Lieth, Stanley Compton, B. M. Tiernan, Robert Edgren, all of Lafayette; William C. Emory of Moraga; Thomas Gibson of Orinda; George Peterson and William Rodgers of Alamo, and Robert D. Cuenin of Diablo.

Mrs. George Rumsey and Mrs. James Howard of Piedmont head the planning committee for Children's Opera Hours.

Choral Group Plans Concert

The annual Christmas concert of the Diablo Valley Choral Society will be presented in the Alamo Women's Club December 9 at 8 p.m.

Chairman for the festivities is Mrs. E. R. Ries of Lafayette.

Christmas carols and holiday songs will be sung by the group for members and their guests and families.

Muscular Dystrophy Campaign Is Planned by Junior Women

A drive to raise funds for the Muscular Dystrophy Association will be conducted by the Women's Clubs, Junior Membership, next Thursday through December 3.

The Walnut Creek Juniors are coordinators, and will be assisted by Juniors in Concord, Danville, Lafayette, Pleasant Hill and other areas.

"Marchers Kits" were assembled recently at a meeting in the association office in the Roth-Adams building, 1287 Boulevard Way, Walnut Creek.

F. P. FARRELL is county campaign chairman, and Frank Silva is president of the county chapter.

"It is manifested by gradual weakening of the voluntary muscles. Over a period of years the wasting and resultant weakening becomes progressively apparent and the patient is confined to a wheelchair and eventually to his bed," he said.

"Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America, Inc., stimulates research into the cause and cure of the disease through a comprehensive program of grants-in-aid to trained investigators working in medical centers and universities throughout the United States and in many foreign countries.

IT ALSO supports the Institute for Muscle Disease, a major research center whose construction it financed," Farrell said.

MDAA sponsors the establishment of muscular dystrophy cinics throughout the country and administers an extensive program of services to patients and their families, defraying the expenses of diagonistic examinations, orthopedic appliances and wheelchairs and physical therapy when recommended and supervised by a physician.

County Employees Seek Pay 90% of Unions

A campaign to obtain 90 per cent of union scale pay levels in the Bay Area will be stepped up by the Contra Costa County Public Employees' Union, Local 302, members decided November 16.

Statistical materials showing that the request is equitable will be prepared and submitted to the county civil service commission, said Thomas Martin, past president of the AFL-CIO local.

The formula already applies to electricians, painters and maintenance workers in the Contra Costa Building Service Department, Martin said.

Two public administrations, San Francisco and San Mateo, already pay employees of those departments full union scale, he said.

Cliff Chaney, adult probation officer, was nominated for a second term as president. Election will be December 21 in Richmond.

Nominated also were Don Keller, vice-president; Glenna Pires and Marilyn Johnson, secretary; Georgianna Flynn, incumbent, treasurer; Jerry Wenker, incumbent and Thomas Martin, sergeant-at-arms; Celia Medina, Dorothy Boyd, Irene Pease, Beth Vieregge, Louren Lohstroh, Larry Wise and Mickey Pollick, executive board which has four openings.

The union's annual Christmas party will be held December 9.

Jim Ritch Managing Developers

James T. Ritch, 58, has been appointed acting manager of the Contra Costa Development Association.

Appointment was by the association's advisory committee with the approval of the board of supervisors.

Ritch will replace Mrs. Iona Booth, who retired October 31 after more than 20 years service.

Ritch has been association publicity director since 1958.

He was former state editor of the Oakland Tribune, and also was managing editor of the Vallejo Times Herald and the Contra Costa Gazette.

County Offices Being Studied By Women Voters

The League of Women Voters of Concord-Diablo Valley will continue its study of Contra Costa administration at meetings next week.

Mrs. Ray Long, chairman fo the county study, said that county hospital, clinic and social service structure and organization will be analyzed.

The league's study is being done, she said, with a view toward publication of a "Know Your County" booklet, which will be made available to residents of central Contra Costa County.

The meetings will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Allie Norton, 3201 Clayton Road, Concord; Wednesday, 9:45 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Ludwig Reis, 3 Karen Court, Walnut Creek; and Thursday, 1:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Leonard Barker, 40 Adeline Drive, Walnut Creek.

Meetings are open to all women of central Contra Costa County. Women wishing to attend may call Mrs. George Herne, or Mrs. Sam Harris.

Shriners Plan Dinner Dance

The Contra Costa Shrine Club's annual fall dinner dance will be held tomorrow night at Castlewood Country Club.

Orinda CC Tops Local Clubs in Benefit Tourney

Orinda Golf and Country Club made the best record of Central Contra Costa clubs among all 10 courses in the county which participated in the recent third annual Babe Didrikson Zaharias Memorial Golf Tournment, Mrs. Paul Coe Froelich of Lafayette, county tournament chairman, announced today.

Orinda beat out four other central Contra Costa clubs, but took fifth place in the county in the "beat the pros" contest, entry fees from which go to the American Cancer Society for medical research. Orinda posted 18 winners from 35 entries.

Women matched their scores against those of Patty Berg who got a 78, beating Betsy Rawls by one stroke in the women's exhibition match climaxing the tournament.

MEN players had to beat Bud Ward, who had 73 against Dutch Harrison's 76 at the men's Northern California pro match. Both pro matches were played at Harding Park in San Francisco.

Mira Vista was first in Contra Costa County, with 108 winners of 213 entries. Richmond Golf Course had 37 winners of 81 entries for second place; Tilden Park Golf Club was third with 23 winners of 29 entries; and Antioch City Municipal Golf Course had 22 winners of 29 entries, for fourth place.

Orinda beat Contra Costa Country Club which posted 17 winners among 71 entries. Diablo Country Club followed Contra Costa, with 13 winners of 40 entries. Others were Walnut Hills Country Club of Lafayette with seven winners of 12 entries, and Round Hill Country Club of Alamo with two winners of 24 entries.

Lecture on Art Is Offered by Orinda Center

The sixth and final lecture of a series entitled "Art Appreciation Through Perception," arranged by the Orinda Art Center, will take place at the Oakland Art Museum Tuesday at 10 a.m.

Hazel Bray, education assistant at the museum, and speaker for the series, will illustrate her concluding talk with paintings by contemporary California artists, selected from the permanent collection of the museum.

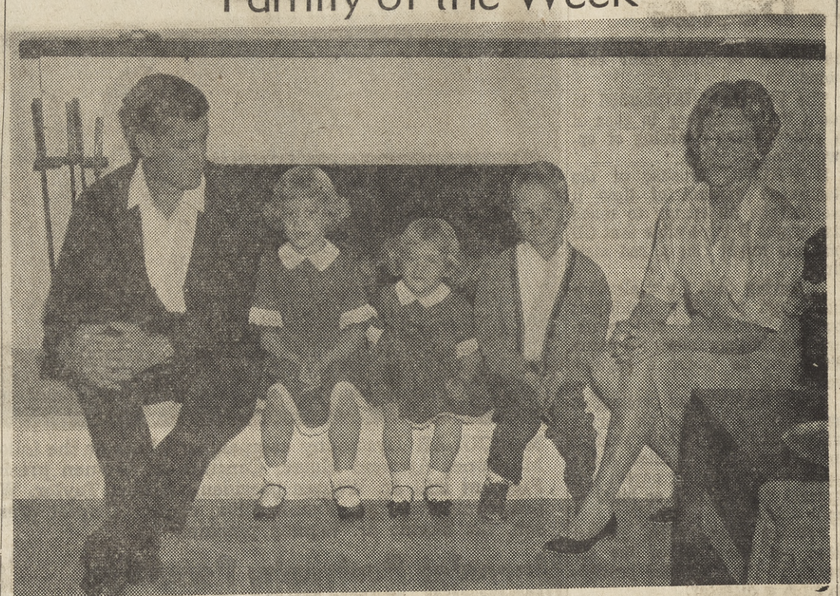
Rain Follows Cold Snap

Dust settled and spirits rose this week as a measurable rain fell on Orinda late Sunday and early Monday morning. The 1.80 inches brought the seasonal total to 2.43. Temperatures fell to a new low for the season this week, with 19 degrees recorded Friday.

Here are the temperatures:

	Hi	Lo
Thursday	64	24
Friday	61	19
Saturday	62	24
Sunday	60	28
Monday	52	35
Tuesday	53	26
Wednesday	58	30

Family of the Week



HEARTH-HUGGERS at the Ted Rimers home are Sindy, 5, Jane, 3, and Craig, 7, who find it a good place to be these cold evenings with a front-row seat for the stereo music that provides the family with their main pleasure and hobby. Ted Rimers is new president of Hacienda Home Improvement Association and Hacienda Homes, Inc. Professionally, he is manager of the Maryland Casualty Company in Oakland, president of the Oakland Claims Managers Forum and chairman of the American Arbitration Committee. A former Tanager and officer of Orinda Nursery School, Dottie, who is enjoying her "vacation" from extracurricular activities, concentrates solely on being a dutiful mother and wife. The native Californians (she's from Fresno, he's from Piedmont) have lived at 62 Mira Loma for the past 4½ years, are typical of young suburban couples combining home life with community interests. Son Craig attends Santa Maria School, is a member of Indian Guides; Sindy's an Orinda School kindergartener and Jane keeps Dottie company at home. (She's on a vacation from nursery school, too!)

Dean Lohman To Address Demo Club

Politics will be the topic of discussion at a meeting of the Orinda-Moraga Democratic Club on December 1, at Oak Springs Club House in Orinda. Principal speaker will be Joseph D. Lohman, dean of the school of criminology at the University of California.

Dean Lohman was Illinois state treasurer until 1960, when he became a candidate for governor of Illinois. Prior to his service as treasurer, he was sheriff of Cook County (Chicago) and held other responsible positions in law enforcement and related fields. He has been a long-time associate of Adlai Stevenson.

Now a resident of Orinda, Dean Lohman will give some impressions of contemporary politics and discuss some of his experiences as candidate and office holder in Illinois.

Harold Mutnick of Lafayette, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress from the 6th District (Contra Costa County), will comment on the local political scene.

The meeting will be preceded by a potluck supper, ti begin at 7 p.m. The public is invited to the meeting and the supper. Those wishing to attend the dinner should call Marian Harris at CL 4-0720 or Eleanor Hubner at CL 4-4134.

Russell Appointed Sales Manager

Rick Russell has been appointed area sales manager for Photocopy Products in the Northern California area, it was announced today by Smith-Corona Marchant, Inc.

Russell will supervise the marketing of the company's new line of photocopy machines, and will operate out of the Smith-Corona Marchant branch office at 681 Market Street, San Francisco.

Prior to his new assignment, Russell was with the Calculator Sales Division of SCM in Oakland, and was formerly sales manager for the Electro Way Corporation.

County Delays Decision on Orinda North

Hearing on the request of builders Bryan and Murphy to build a subdivision of 200 lots on 185 acres of property known as Orinda North was postponed Tuesday by the county planning commission until December 5 at the request of the builders.

Richard Bartle, chairman of the planning committee of the Orinda Association which is unanimously opposed to the proposed subdivision as the plans now specify, commented to The Sun:

"The threat of this subdivision is not beyond us. We must keep alert and watch developments. We cannot be lulled into a false sense of security by this delay."

Association members, as well as many homeowner groups and residents, are opposed to the proposed Tract No. 2893, because the plans do not live up to what they feel is desirable development of choice Orinda property.

The builders have requested 67 lots of less than one-half acre, with some lots as small as one-quarter acre.

Consultation On Diets Is Possible

The Contra Costa County Heart Association offers diet consultation service to those patients whose doctors request this help for them.

A well qualified dietitian is available to give consulations, either at the office of the Heart Association or in the home of the patient.

The dietitian goes over the diet prescription with the patient and suggests means of carrying it out based on individual and family eating patterns. She keeps informed about new developments in prepared foods and advises the patient where these may be obtained.

Other members include: Mrs. Iris Crump, Mrs. Helen Torbet, Concord; Waneta DeWeerd, Barbara Alves, Martinez; Frances Miles and Mrs. Charles Aiman, Walnut Creek; Mrs. Jane McClelland, Pleasant Hill, and Mrs. Marjorie Ackerman, Richmond.

Orinda Home Is Damaged By Vandals

Vandals accounted for more than $1,600 in damage to an unfinished Orinda home last weekend.

Sheriff's deputies said a group of mischief makers entered a partially completed house on Fieldbrook Place in Orinda, held a beer party, ripped fixtures from the walls and smashed mirrors.

Souza Heading '46 Class Reunion

Roger Souza of Walnut Creek is local chairman of the 15th class reunion of the University of California class of 1946.

It will be held tonight at 8 in the concert room of the Sheraton-Palace Hotel, San Francisco. Also invited are classmates from 1945 and 1947.

In the Classroom . . .

I.V. Intermediate

Recently at I.V. Intermediate School, students commemorated Veterans' Day with a special assembly. The program began with a word from Cindy Cheney on the origin of Veterans' Day. Then Mrs. Simon, a member of the faculty, told why America entered the two world wars.

She stressed the importance of freedom, democracy, and honor. Subsequently, song sheets were passed out and the audience joined Mr. Tripp and Alberta Koch in the singing of "Over There," the stirring tune of World War I.

Next Donna Easterly told of the major part animals had played in the wars, their faithfulness and courage.

JACKIE SINGER related the tale of Cher Ami, the brave carrier pigeon who had saved the "Lost Battalion" during World War II. Two outstanding poems of World War I, "Flanders Fields" and "America's Answer" were recited by Judy Lissner and Debbie Palmquist. Then Ann Acton and Maureen Wiegand spoke on America's part in the two wars.

There were three guest speakers who were very stimulating. First Mr. Isola, director of physical education for the area who had fought in the second world war, gave us "The Soldier's View."

HE TOLD us about the dangers and sacrifices of war, adding some of his own experiences. Then Mrs. Santogrossi, a former army nurse, told of women's part in the war.

Mr. Sheaff, district superintendent, gave a talk on the significance of Veterans' Day.

The program with one minute of silent tribute during which heads were bowed and thoughts turned to those who died for their country. "Taps" was played by David Candia and the students filed out silently, concluding I.V.'s tribute to Veterans' Day.

Del Rey: Music

Mrs. Shirley Petty has found her kindergarteners comprise an unusual and surprising class in their response to music. Often, after singing them a song, different individuals will come back with a song, keyed to the same subject, which he or she has conceived. Sometimes the tune as well as the wording is original.

A song about a turtle evoked several responses and Halloween inspired numerous original compositions. Among the more prolific composers are Dianne Berrigan, Betsy Patmont, Becky Richardson and Keving Dauphinee.

To Show Film On Communism

The Teenage Republicans of Orinda-Moraga will present the film "Communism on the Map," Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Orinda School auditorium. It will be followed by a question-answer period to be led by John Douglas.

Douglas has shown this film many times before and is an authority on the subject. There will be no charge and refreshments will be served after the discussion by the Orinda-Moraga Teenage Republicans.

This film is part of the Teenage Republicans educational activities. The group is now in its second active year.

Block 'M' Dance Ends Football; Pirates Go On

By KITTY MIKA AND ANN LINCOLN

The football season has come to an end, the players have turned in their jerseys, and now the familiar echo of the basketball bouncing on the court is heard.

To really end the season with a bang, the biggest and best Block "M" Dance ever, was held at Miramonte on Friday night. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of a senior couple as Football King and Queen. It was fitting that Roger McCosker, captain of the football team and president of Block "M" was crowned king, and Cheri Roomer, his queen.

SOME of the many couples celebrating the end of one season, and the beginning of another were Toni Aires and Rick Merriam, Sue Fernsten and Dean Hilger, Roxie Smith and Bob Williams, Charlene Mossotto and Tommy Gunn, Pat Campbell and Scott Huntley, and Katrina Holland and Mike Gilmore.

A small slumber party was held at Kathy Beconcini's on Friday night, but, as usual, not much slumbering was done.

Bonnie Kent, Kathy Beconcini, and Cheri Roomer still had their pajamas on Saturday morning while practicing for the Senior Assembly. Apparently, the girls didn't have enough room in the house, so they practiced on the road. They got quite a few puzzled stares from passers by.

After painting twelve pairs of gloves, shoes, pitchforks, tails, and horns, yellow, a few girls in one of the acts of the Senior Assembly will never look at yellow again.

REPORT card time came last week, and with it came the appropriate tears or smiles. It may be some time before you see some Miramonte boys or girls out on weekends—it seems some parents didn't appreciate the results of their hardworking student's efforts.

"Breakfast At Tiffany's" is spreading like a disease. Just about everyone who is anyone has seen, or is planning to see it. Sherry Odenthal, Carol Troy, Carol Gilmore, and Carolyn Colburn all trooped into Berkeley to see it, and on Saturday night Chrissy Voll and Bill Cooper, Wendy Wilcox and Dick Miller, and Marc Jacobs and John Templeton were a few of the Miramonte teens enjoying the show.

Sue Hancock and Rich Adair, and Pam Pearson and John Rielly were there too, but since they fell asleep during the first feature, they left before "Breakfast at Tiffany's" even began.

With the Senior Ball in mind, Judy Hopkins and Mike McGuire drove 50 miles to Oakley to hear a band play at a Fireman's Ball. It was a wasted 50 miles, for, according to Mike, they were a bunch of hicks.

WE ARE sorry to hear that none of us will be able to enjoy the talents of Sylvestor again. Jackie Edenholm and Chris Combs, Chris Campbell and Kieth St. Clair, Allison Hanford and Gary Black, and Georgia Glacy and Doug Knudson were at the Sylvestor Function last Saturday night to listen and dance to the terrific music for the last time.

Bonnie Kent went to visit an old friend in Palo Alto on Saturday night. It was pretty depressing for Bonnie, because they went to see her old house, and she found out it had been turned into an office building—that's life, Bonnie!

We hear a certain sophomore couple had a hard time getting home from San Francisco. Kit Kersch and Karen Nattress went to Fisherman's Wharf for dinner, and then set out for China Town—they ended up going over the good ole Golden Gate twice. To top it all off, it took them two hours and 15 minutes to find their way home.

Brad Harlan had quite a party Saturday night. Just ask anyone—it was full of surprises!! Mary Baker seemed to be electrically charged, and was passing out shocks. Poor Brad flinched whenever anyone stomped on the floor—for some reason he was worried about the people underneath.

Mr. Harlan was really impressed with the party, and he got right into the swing of things. We hear he's quite a dancer—he caught on to the Twist in no time flat.

Some of the couples who took part in the goings on were Brad and Jo-Ann Scholberg, Sharon Nielsen and Bob Pothier, Mary Baker and Mike McQuaid, Linnet Trefts and Steve Miller, and Sue Nattress and Paul McChesney.

Sue Skaggs Joins College Group

Sue Skaggs of 1 Van Tassel Lane, has been named to membership in Orchesis, modern dance group at Lawrence College, Appleton, Wisconsin. Orchesis presents yearly shows at the college, each with a chosen theme around which the program is oriented.

Go to Church Sunday

BAPTIST

"God's Deliverence for Man's Dilemma" is the subject for the message at the 11 o'clock morning worship service at the First Baptist Church of Orinda - Lafayette. The pastor, Reverend Lawrence C. Guido, will speak. The choir, under the direction of Larry Hoyt, will sing an anthem of praise.

Robert Saxton, teacher of the adult Sunday school class is currently teaching a series entitled "Panaroma of Scriptures." Open to all adults, the class begins at 10 a.m. Specially prepared materials are given to the class each Sunday.

The evening service begins at 7 p.m. with congregational singing. Sunday school is at 9:45 a.m. and B.F. at 6:15 p.m.

The church is located at 4300 El Nido Ranch Road. A nursery is available for all services.

LUTHERAN

Rev. Albert Eddy, Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church, 433 Moraga Way, Orinda, has entitled the sermon for November 26 "The Parable of the Wise and Foolish Maidens" at both the 8 a.m. and the 11 a.m. services.

Sunday school will be conducted in the parish house from 9:30 to 10:40 a.m.

METHODIST

"Christianity's Assignment in the City" will be the sermon topic of the Reverend George E. Berry of the Lafayette Methodist Church, 955 Moraga Road, Lafayette. Church worship services are held at 9:30 and 11 a.m. each Sunday morning. Church school for all the family is held at 9:30 a.m., nursery for small children at 9:30 a.m., also. Nursery care is provided for children at the 11 a.m. service, also.

Two youth groups meet Sunday evenings at 7 p.m. at the church. The Intermediate Youth Fellowship is for seventh and eighth graders, the Methodist Youth Fellowship is for high school youth. Those interested are cordially invited to attend.

EPISCOPAL

Rev. William J. Frankhuizen will give a sermon on "Personnel Problem: The Ambassador's Staff" at the 9:30 a.m. service of morning prayer at St. Giles' Episcopal Church, Moraga.

Church school for children four years old and through the eighth grade will be held at the same time. St. Giles' Episcopal Church is located in Rheem Center adjacent to the Rheem Theatre. Nursery care for younger children is available.

ASSEMBLY OF GOD

The Lafayette Assembly of God, located at the corner of Springbrook Road and Hillcroft Way, will begin a Revival Crusade with Evangelist Ralph I. Cranston Sunday.

Evangelist Cranston has conducted revival crusades throughout America and Europe. Reverend Cranston was the first American minister to visit the notorious Vught concentration camp.

Reverend Cranston will preach at the 11 a.m. worship service and the 7 p.m. evangelistic rally. Sunday school begins at 9:45 a.m. with classes for all ages.

The meetings will continue nightly at 7:30 p.m. for the next two weeks except for Mondays and Saturdays. Reverend Glen Lambert is pastor and wishes to extend a cordial invitation to the public to attend all the services.

PRESBYTERIAN

The Lafayette-Orinda Presbyterian Church, 49 Knox Drive, Lafayette, will have the Reverend Robert Christiansen of the First Presbyterian Church, Concord, as its guest minister on Sunday.

All Presbyterian churches in the Diablo area will exchange ministers for the coming worship services. Dr. Christiansen will have as his sermon topic for the 10 a.m. and 11:15 a.m. services, "The Love of God."

Adult study classes and the children's choirs will meet at 9 a.m.; church school from kindergarten through third grade will be held at 10 a.m., and church school for all ages will be held at 11:15. Nursery care will be provided at all times.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

A challenging call to overcome evil, no matter how subtle, with the power of God will be heard Sunday at Christian Science church services.

"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, Alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" is the subject of the lesson-sermon. Readings from the Bible will include this verse from Revelation (21): "He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son."

Christian Science Churches are located at 3422 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette; 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda; 1437 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, and at the corner of Grant and Park Streets, Concord.

TENTATIVE boundaries for the new Campolindo High School attendance area are now under consideration by Acalanes High School District trustees. The currently proposed boundary will include the Glorietta School area, most of Moraga and Canyon attendance area, the Warford Mesa section, plus homes in the Acalanes Road area.

CHRISTIAN

Sunday the Reverend Darwin A. Mann of the Lafayette Christian Church will begin a series of sermons for the Advent season, following the theme, "Jesus, The Light." The topic for the first in the series will be "Heralds of the Light."

Worship services begin at 10 a.m. and there are church school classes for all ages, nursery to adult, at 9 a.m. Sunday evening youth meetings include Chi Rho for sixth, seventh and eighth graders at 4:30 and CYF for high school youth at 6:30.

There will be a board of directors meeting at the church at 8 p.m. Tuesday.

Thursday there will be meetings of the morning Bible study group at 9:30, choir at 7 p.m. and the spiritual growth group at 8 p.m.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

A challenging call to overcome evil, no matter how subtle, with the power of God will be heard Sunday at Christian Science church services.

"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, Alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" is the subject of the lesson-sermon. Readings from the Bible will include this verse from Revelation (21): "He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son."

Christian Science Churches are located at 3422 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette; 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda; 1437 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, and at the corner of Grant and Park Streets, Concord.

PRESBYTERIAN

The Moraga Valley Presbyterian Church holds its morning worship service at 11 a.m. in the old Moraga School. Dr. Ronald T. White, pastor, has chosen as his title for Sunday "Christianity, a Transforming Minority."

Church school is held at 11 a.m. in the old Moraga School. Junior High Fellowship is held at 11 a.m. in the Manse and High School Westminister Fellowship will meet at 6:45 p.m. in the home of the William Graffts.

Two identical adult Bible study groups are held on Wednesday at the old Moraga School, one class at 10 a.m. and the other at 8 p.m.

BIBLE

Sunday at the 11 a.m. service of the Suburban Bible Church Rev. Gray Lambert will speak on the subject "In Every Thing Give Thanks." Also at the 11 a.m. service the children's choir will sing and David Flagg of Orinda will bring a special message in song.

At 10 a.m. grade Bible classes will be held for all ages from the nursery age through the adult level.

Other activities of the church planned for the coming week include: ladies Bible class Tuesday at 9:45 a.m., Suburban Youth Fellowship Wednesday afternoon and children's choir Tuesday at 4 p.m. The public is cordially invited to attend the services of the church. Nursery facilities are available at all regular services.

EPISCOPAL

Services at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, St. Stephen's Drive and Las Vegas Road, Orinda, this Sunday will include holy communion at 7:30 a.m. and morning prayer at 9 a.m. and 11 a.m. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. Melvin R. Brown.

The four women's guilds of the church will meet on Thursday at the church. St. Teresa's and St. Margaret's will meet at 10 a.m., followed by a luncheon for all the guilds at 12 p.m. The speaker will be Clifford Horton, full-time lay worker in the Christian social relations department of the diocese, in charge of work on retarded children.

At 1:30 p.m., St. Anne's and St. Catherine's will meet.

Tuesday the men of the church will meet for a dinner at 6:45 p.m. The speaker will be Dr. David Hackett, Ph.D. and associate professor of bio-chemistry at the University of California, who will give some of his impression on Russia made during a recent trip.

Wednesday at 10 a.m. there will be a service of holy communion followed by a service of Christian healing.

CONGREGATIONAL

"Christmas Preparation" will be the sermon subject of the Reverend Chauncey Blossom at the 9:30 and 11 a.m. worship services on the first Sunday in Advent at the Orinda Community Church. The choirs will sing "Glorious Things of Thee Are Spoken" by Haydn.

Church school classes will be held during each service for three-year-olds through the eighth grade. A class for ninth and tenth graders will be held at 9:30 a.m. only. Child care will be provided. Junior Pilgrim Fellowship will meet at 4 p.m. and Senior Pilgrim Fellowship will meet at the church at 7 o'clock.

LUTHERAN

"Having Then Gifts" will be the sermon subject of the Rev. Merle O. Tollefson at the 8:30 and 10:30 a.m. Sunday services of Our Savior's Lutheran Church of Lafayette.

Sunday church school for all ages will begin at 9:45 a.m.

Wednesday at 8 p.m. the midweek Bible course for families will meet at the home of Mrs. Jane Kesselring, 3796 Happy Valley Road, Lafayette.

Thursday at 10 a.m. the Women's Bible study course will continue its study of Genesis. Junior and senior confirmation classes meet Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

BAPTIST

The Moraga Hills Community Baptist Church (located three-fourths of a mile north of Rheem Center on Moraga Road) begins Sunday services with Church School for all ages at 9:45 a.m.

The adult class is studying the Book of Acts. At the 11 a.m. services Interim Pastor Bill Rose will have as his sermon subject "Divine Appointment."

Nursery is provided for both hours.

All are invited to remain after the church services for coffee and cookies and a time for fellowship.

METHODIST

This week opens the season of Advent at St. Marks and Rev. John L. Dodson will preach on the subject, Advent Adages: Saviour in a Stable" at the 11 a.m. worship service at Miramonte High School, on Moraga Way.

Both Church School and child care are provided at the 11 a.m. service. Care for infants is at the parsonage, 143 Fiesta Circle. St. Mark's Chancel Choir, directed by Mrs. John Holzinger, will present Shaw's, 'With the Voice of Singing."

Saturday the Adult Fellowship of St. Mark's meets at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Switack, 4008 Canyon Road, Lafayette. All adult members and friends of the church are welcome at this event.

The Methodist Youth Fellowship of St. Marks will travel to the Richmond Auditorium Friday for a Methodist Conference party attended by over 2000 youth from the Northern California Methodist Youth Program.

Campolindo Attendance Boundaries Proposed

Tentative boundaries for the new Campolindo High School attendance area are now under consideration by Acalanes High School District trustees. The proposed boundaries have been shifted slightly from an earlier tentative line drawn last year.

The shift in the tentative boundaries was made following a continuing study of high school enrollment conducted by high school district officials.

THE PROPOSED adjusted Campolindo attendance boundary will include the Glorietta School area, most of the Moraga and Canyon attendance area, the Warford Mesa section, plus homes in the Acalanes Road area.

The proposed attendance boundaries have been modified to take enrollment pressure away from Miramonte High School, now the largest school in the Acalanes District.

District Assistant Superintendent of Business, Ross Reagan, reports that the boundaries set for Campolindo and all high schools in the Acalanes District are "designed to provide full classroom use of existing schools, relieve enrollment pressures where they are mounting, and insure an orderly growth pattern for the new school."

REAGAN STATED that the latest study indicates that the Lafayette growth rate has slackened while the Orinda-Moraga rate has accelerated. The changes from the earlier proposed Campolindo attendance area put more Moraga students into the new high school.

The area bounding Upper Happy Valley Road north of the freeway, previously slated for Campolindo, will remain in the Acalanes High School attendance area. The boundary shift takes fewer students away from Acalanes High, where enrollment pressures are easing, and moves more students to Campolindo from Miramonte High where enrollment pressure is moving upward.

Decision on the proposed Campolindo boundaries will be made at the high school board meeting 7:30 p.m., Monday.

A Difficult Problem, and It Involves Our Kids

We have a perennial problem with us—one which is going to increase—one which is going to be very difficult to solve.

That is the problem of where our children can walk on their way to and from school.

Most of our streets, outside of a very few downtown areas, do not have sidewalks, or even suitable walkways along the roadside. This makes a dual hazard for the driver and the pedestrian, and when the pedestrian is an active child, the jeopardy is doubled.

YOU MAY have noticed an article published recently which noted that the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors has allocated $10,000 for the purchase of easements for temporary walkways to alleviate a dangerous situation near Ayers School in Concord.

Now, we don't doubt that the Ayers School problem was a dangerous one, but we'll bet there are dozens right here at home that are just as bad, if not worse. Consider El Toyonal Road in Orinda, or Orinda Way—or portions of Reliez Station Road in Lafayette, or Tice Valley Boulevard, or Walnut Boulevard . . . or some of the curvy winding streets in Pleasant Hill.

IF THE COUNTY is going to allocate funds each year, even in a small way, perhaps it would be a good idea for the Public Works Department to make a thorough study of this situation all over the county, and then establish a priority list for the allocation of future funds.

In fact, as our population density grows, we are going to have an increasing traffic problem, and more children, which will just double the danger.

The county is only concerned, of course, with areas which are unincorporated.

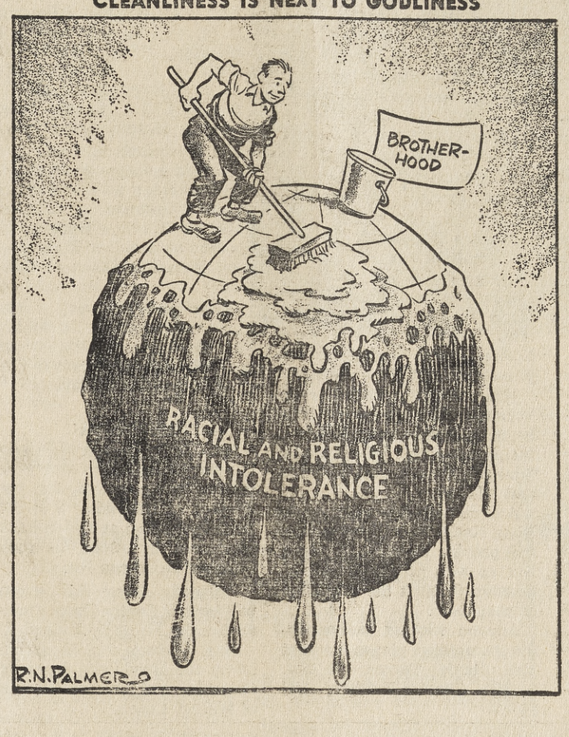
THE PLEASANT HILL City Council will have to face this problem, as must the Walnut Creek City Council when it occurs inside the city limits.

It is difficult to offer a comprehensive answer to such a complex problem. In some areas, such as Lafayette's Happy Valley, the matter has been settled individually by the property owners, who put in their own walkways.

OTHER SUGGESTIONS have been the formation of local improvement districts to solve the problem in a given area on a wider scale.

Certainly the county cannot be expected to put sidewalks all over the unincorporated area of the county in a short time. And it is equally doubtful if many residents would care to finance such a costly proposition.

CLEANLINESS IS NEXT TO GODLINESS



This Might Make Your Christmas Cheerier . . .

Started thinking about Christmas yet?

If you have, chances are you have been thinking in terms of holiday parties, gifts for family members, and a general season of celebration and gaiety.

But there are others who cannot think of Christmas in this way.

Why? Because they, too, have people they love, but they are unable to do anything for them. And what can take the joy out of Christmas faster than thinking of a young son or daughter, with heart set on a new bicycle, and you know that when they awaken Christmas morning that it will not be there.

FORTUNATELY there is a group at work right here in Central Contra Costa County which is doing its part to see that this does not happen in as many homes as possible. That is the Christmas Bureau, which did a wonderful job last year, and is doing it again this year.

An example of their work is in the collection and repair of wheel toys. These toys, which may be considerably battered to start with, are fixed and painted, and they look just like new.

Plaudits should also go to the youngsters at Las Lomas High School. These students, in their metal shop class under the direction of Adrien Smith, are repairing the toys.

IF YOU HAVE any raw material which they could work on, there is still time to see that they get it—by December 1.

Needed are repairable bikes, scooters, doll buggies, strollers and wagons. They may be taken to any of the following stations: Bud Robinson's, 2895 North Main Street, Walnut Creek; Norm Robinson's, Main and Broadway, Walnut Creek; Ned de Laveaga's, Orinda Way, Orinda, and Scott Shepard's, 3632 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette.

And that should make your Christmas a little bit cheerier—a little bit more meaningful, perhaps.

We Have Had It...

We have had it!

And there isn't a single thing we can do about it.

If you are fortunate enough to live in Lafayette or Danville, you haven't had it yet, but you will certainly feel the effects . . . probably next year.

What have we had? An increase in our tax rate, that's what. Why? Because the firemen of the county have been granted a 10 per cent increase in pay.

This measure was not included in any of the fire district budgets. So, now the money is being borrowed from the county to pay the increased salaries, and we will find ourselves with an increase in our next year's taxes just to pay back what we are paying the firemen now. Plus the additional cost of continuing the increased salaries.

ONE ORINDA OFFICIAL has estimated that it will cost Orindans eight cents per $100 right off the bat.

So, when you pay (if you haven't already done so) your current tax bill, you're not really paying all of this year's taxes.

This measure actually affects only the county-controlled fire districts, which include all in this area except Lafayette and Danville. But they will obviously be affected.

This is the type of supervisorial action that puts us in a terrible light, and we can't see any justification for it at all. Apparently there must have been a lot of political pressure on the board of supervisors. That's the only reason we can think of for this action being taken.

Count Your Blessings...

By GEORGE COLBURN

Although Thanksgiving Day, 1961, is just a memory now, I'd like to comment briefly on this holiday before it slips from mind.

For many people, Thanksgiving Day is just "Turkey Day" and a case of indigestion or a slight hangover as they head back to work the day after.

For the youngsters, it means two days off from school and lots to eat on one of the days—and only three weeks until Christmas vacation.

However, to me Thanksgiving is more than a day off, a big meal or the start of the winter holiday season.

TO ME, it's a great holiday—a sentimental one, maybe, but great just the same.

When I was young, Thanksgiving meant clean, crisp weather, a trip downtown for the big parade when Santa arrived for the first time, a football game in the afternoon and the whole family enjoying a fine meal in gay spirits—but most of all it was a day when our family gave thanks for being together, having food on the table, and not having to want for anything.

Sound corny? Well, maybe it is.

Thanksgiving is an American holiday. It's our day to give thanks for the many blessings we have because we are Americans.

We live in the greatest country in the world, have more than any other nation, and we should be thankful.

There are millions of people who would love to be here, enjoy our comforts, our food, our modern life.

HOWEVER, our modern life, our easy life, seems to be gradually pushing the sentimental, the old-fashioned American ideas into oblivion.

I don't like to see this happen.

Being sentimental isn't the modern attitude, I'm told.

However, the holidays will always affect me in the same sentimental way.

But I also hope that everyone counted their many blessings and gave thanks for them.

We Like It Here . . .

Next Time . . . Try The Sleigh!

By MARIE MONAHAN

OVER THE FREEWAY & through the tunnel . . .
To Grandfather's house we went;
The car had a flat,
'Twas a long time we sat
Learning what hunger pangs meant.

OVER the freeway we loped along . . .
Anticipating that sumptuous spread!
Hear the sirens wail,
We'll land in jail.
Or a hospital room instead.

OVER the freeway, across the bridge . . .
In, out, now fast, now slow . . .
It's worth your life
Such strain & strife
Keeping up with the traffic flow.

OVER the freeway, bumper to bumper . . .
OH, how SOME people drive!
By the time we got there,
The turkey was bare . . .
We gave Thanks we were still alive!

OFF THE FREEWAY & down the road,
Through the barnyard gates we went;
The cows did, too!
The chickens flew
Our insurance took care of the dent!

OUT OF THE CAR & into the house
We bounded expecting such fun;
The table was filled,
The relatives chilled . . .
Of pumpkin & mince, there were none!

OVER THE HILLS in a traffic jam . . .
We headed for Home, Sweet Home;
The children were bawling,
The baby was squalling,
Whatever possessed us to roam?

SAFELY at home & into the kitchen . . .
Suddenly older & wiser;
NO leftover lickings,
NO drumsticks, no pickings,
NO BICARB—Just ONE tranquilizer!!

SHELTERS

Dear Editor:

I should like to add my two cents worth to the fallout shelter controversy.

The U.S. has a stockpile of 33,000 megatons, of which 16,000 are ready for delivery. (Today's news release.)

Russia may have half of this. This means that in the event of nuclear war, at least 24,000 megatons of nuclear explosives will be set off.

According to recent estimates (Look magazine) this is sufficient from fallout alone, to kill 95 per cent of the U.S. and Russian population, even if no attempt were made to aim the missiles and bombs.

There is also the long-term fallout of Strontium 90 to consider.

FURTHERMORE, in target areas, there is the effect of fire storms, which from one 50-megaton device would extend for 50 miles in all directions from the blast. A larger number of smaller devices would probably be even more destructive.

Nothing is said about bacteriological warfare, in which both sides have capabilities. Furthermore, in a few years, should we live that long, bombs will be available which will scorch western states at once, igniting everything flammable.

The American people, and what is worse, the present administration, which has sold the people a bill of goods to keep the "natives from getting restless," suffer from the delusion that one can go on waging war as usual, even nuclear war, by merely digging a hole in the back yard and crawling in when the bombs go off.

THE FACT IS, based on the size of the stockpiles, Herman Kohn's book, and the hearings before the special subcommittee on radiation, 86th Congress, June, 1959, that in the event of full-scale nuclear war we have had it, the Russians have had it, the Northern Hemisphere has had it, western civilization has had it.

But people are very stubborn and have an infinite capacity for self-deception, and national leaders are, if anything, worse in this respect than their subjects. The Luce publications are worse than either.

THE SHELTER craze is an effort to avoid facing the unpleasant facts. The average belief appears to be that with a shelter in the back yard one per cent of us will be killed in the event of war, nasty old communism will be gone forever (we will "win," of course) and in a short time free enterprise will be flourishing again as never before.

So why not go ahead and "get it over with?" We'll show them a thing or two, by golly!

The root of the problem is the refusal of the people and the leaders, both here and in Russia, to face the fact that a fundamental revolution in warfare has occurred, a revolution in human capabilities more far-reaching than that of the discovery of fire, or the invention of agriculture.

And as the armaments race progresses, the potentialities for destruction will become even worse, in a very few years. The "Doomsday Machine," for example, is theoretically possible.

Until the American and Russian people start facing the facts and making every effort possible to bring these facts home to their leaders, we are all no better than faceless robots marching blindly over the edge of a precipice.

MICHAEL WALES.

Let's Look at Another Community Problem . . .

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

Living in suburbia certainly has many advantages.

Most of us moved here for these advantages—and to get away from the disadvantages of city life. Unfortunately, as our community grows, some of the disadvantages catch up with us.

Today I refer to vandalism by teenagers and children.

(We could just as easily discuss the increase of crime by adults, as our town grows. Thus, we must recognize that vandalism by young people is not the only problem facing us with community growth.)

A little bit of history

Actually vandalism by kids and teenagers is not really a new problem. I remember 13 years ago when a number of homes were torn apart and messed up during a summer vacation. However, there's no doubt that vandalism will continue to increase simply because our population continues to increase.

What causes it? What can be done about it?

These we have discussed in past columns, editorials and news stories. Today I'm merely posing the problem. I solicit your ideas on the suggestion.

I'll end this column with a signed letter I just received. The name is withheld, on request. Here it is:

"I was going to forget Mrs. Winter's letter about her Halloween experience with vandalism in Orinda, but her problem keeps coming back to me.

A big secret

"She's fortunate if she has only that one day to worry about. How would she feel if, on planning a short vacation, even a weekend, she had to warn her children not to tell anyone the family would be away? It doesn't make for a pleasant time, the dread of leaving your house for fear of what you'll find on returning.

"Long before the vandalism you showed in The Sun, when the Andresens of Walnut Creek returned to find their backyard devastated, we had had more than enough eggs thrown at our house for a good omelette; and then, things through the mail were each letter is carefully cut from a magazine and pasted down, so the sender will believe she remains anonymous.

Where does it come from?

"So we repaint the house and we ignore the mail, but I can't help thinking that teenagers must hear a lot of hate at home. When their mother or father speaks well of a friend, teenagers are not likely to throw garbage on front lawns (yes, bagsful on our street). Up to the age of 10 it may well be devilment from boredom; after that, there is an element of viciousness which stems from home environment.

"Please understand why I wish to remain anonyous. Reprisals from teenagers can be ugly."

The Sun Jubilee Tour Of Europe . . . A Bargain

The Sun and its readers are going to Europe!

Amsterdam! Paris! Rome! London! These great world capitals, along with a multitude of other glamorous cities, will become more than a mere dream when the great Sun Jubilee Holiday Jet Tour departs next summer for 28 exciting days in Europe via KLM Royal-8 Jets for only $1095.

This wonderful European Jet Vacation will feature visits to England, Holland, Germany, Switzerland, Liechtenstein, Austria, Italy, Monaco and France, leaving San Francisco on June 14, 1962.

THE TOUR, which will be hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Herman Silverman, publishers of The Sun publications, has been made available only through the sponsorship of The Sun.

Swift United Airlines Mainliner Jets will speed the tour to New York where the group will board the Royal-8 Jets of the world's first airline—KLM Royal Dutch Airlines. Millions of beautiful tulips in full bloom will greet The Sun Jubilee Tour as it reaches the big little country of Holland.

After enjoying comprehensive sightseeing along the dykes and broad lowlands of Holland, the Holiday Tour will proceed into Germany to view the famed cathedral city of Cologne.

FROM MAJESTIC Cologne, the participants embark upon a magnificent trip down the Rhine by steamer, passing under countless fairytale castles perched high on the cliffs, along with miles and miles of blooming vineyards.

Ancient Heidelberg will be visited along with the ancient Black Forest before entering the country of majestic Alps and beautiful lakes—Switzerland.

breathtaking two-day stay, the group will cross the Brenner

Leaving Switzerland after a Pass into Italy, to Venice and its canals; beautiful Florence; the Eternal City of Rome; the Italian and French Riviera, including dinner at famed Monte Carlo and its great casino; then on to lovely Paris.

FROM PARIS, the Jubilee Tour will embark on a short trip to London — the stronghold of western democracy, visiting such wonderful landmarks as Westminster Abbey, the Tower of London, St. Paul's Cathedral, Buckingham Palace and other great landmarks of this magnificent city.

The tour will bid farewell to London and Europe and return to San Francisco and home—all in the same day—thanks to the magic of the jet age and time change.

All transportation, hotels, sightseeing and most meals are included in the great bargain price of only $1095 for the entire trip. The Jubilee Jet Holiday has been made available to its readers by the Sun Publications in an effort to broaden our community vistas as well as provide a fantastic travel value, which is unavailable elsewhere.

READERS ARE urged to take advantage of this great travel value and send for more information and colorful brochures on the trip by writing: Travel, Sun Publications, 1001 Oak Hill Road, Lafayette, as soon as possible.

Space is limited and those interested are urged to register immediately for the Jubilee Jet Holiday—the thrill of your lifetime!

Pay As You Go Plan Approved

A representative of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company has commended the Contra Costa Junior College District for its pay-as-you-go method of financing capital improvements.

H. V. Worthington, manager of the utility firm's Diablo Division at Concord, observed that his own company, engaged in a continuous program of expansion, follows the same principle.

Worthington's remarks were delivered at a dinner which followed a tour of Diablo Valley College's $1,300,000 Science Center by a group of 21 company executives from Oakland headquarters and four East Bay divisions.

Known as the "plant visitation group," the executives regularly tour major industrial firms to get a first-hand look at manufacturing operations.

Worthington granted that the college tour represented a "change of pace," but noted that the college "also turns out an important product."

Aside from educating youth, he said that the college provided industrial management training and other courses for an estimated 10 per cent of Diablo Division employees.

P. G. & E., he said, is now paying $9 million a year in county taxes, of which more than half goes to schools.

Junior Women Excel

A donation of $200 for a special fund was presented to the Contra Costa Mental Health Association by the Walnut Creek Junior Women's Club.

For the past two years, the women have been assisting activities involving the mentally and emotionally ill. This philanthropic endeavor which they voted to continue again this year is under the chairmanship of Mrs. Howard Sebastian.

Last year the group adopted a cottage of teenagers at Napa Hospital. The boys are visited by the Junior Women every fourth Thursday. A birthday party is held for the boys who had birthdays during the month.

Recently they needed 50 pounds of sugar so that the occupants could make fudge and candy which the Junior Women supplied.

Other projects by the Walnut Creek Junior Women include assembling and mailing assistance for the Mental Health Association's monthly newsletter.

They also collect books, magazines, records used for general distribution at the Napa Hospital. Used clothing, bicycles and recreational equipment are also being collected and supplied.

The rehabilitation of a former mental patient had been undertaken by the group. They had found a patient who had been at Napa for 10 years was still at the hospital only because he had no promise of a job or a place to live.

Planned for January at a social program for the Junior Women's Club will be a presentation of a play "And You Never Know."

The play has been produced and cast by Mrs. Kenneth Heiges, director of the Circle Players.

The Circle Players are sponsored by the Contra Costa Mental Health Association and the United Church Women of central Contra Costa.

The work done in the mental health field by the Walnut Creek Women's Club during 1960 resulted in their winning the first place award trophy during the annual convention of the Women's Club, Junior Membership.

Statewide attention was focused on the local Junior Women because of their service to Napa State Hospital and the Contra Costa Mental Health Association.

Mrs. Albert M. Taylor is president of the local Junior Women's Club, and Mrs. Glenn Carter is press chairman.

Woman's Club Will Hear Talk On Hypnosis

A Russian luncheon was on the agenda at the meeting of the gourmet section of the Orinda Woman's Club Wednesday. It was held at the home of Mrs. Harold Sage on Monte Vista Road.

Co-hostess will be Mrs. Herbert Ward. Members sampled such delicacies as borsch, stroganoff, stuffed cabbage, Russian chicken and black bread.

Work Party Will Meet

Club members will work from 10 a.m. until noon on hand made Christmas gifts which will be on sale December 5 at the annual Santa Sales program.

Mrs. Marie Hogarty, chairman for the day, will be assisted by Mrs. Emmett McKeegan and Mrs. Fred Struble.

RUMMAGE SALE

Saturday, December 2 dates the third annual rummage sale for Tau Omicron, Lafayette Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi. The sale will be held in Oakland at 470 - 9th Street, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

As in each preceding year, members are enthusiastically making preparations for this ways and means project. This sale provides the income each year by which Tau Omicron members support their "daughter" in Hong Kong.

Tam Ngan Nui was adopted by Tau Omicron in 1959. She is 13 years old and lives in St. James Settlement. This settlement is one of 11 Christian Children's Fund Homes and Projects in Hong Kong. C.C.F. has homes in 46 different countries, including the United States, and is caring for approximately 37,000 children.

Ngan Nui is in fourth grade because her education has been delayed. Tau Omicron members provide their "daughter" with food, clothing and education.

A camera is now en route to Hong Kong. It is hoped that it will provide pleasure for Ngan Nui as well as a closer relationship through the exchange of snapshots.

Anyone wishing to contribute rummage please contact Mrs. Daniel Torres, 283-2536, or Mrs. Charles Hultberg, YE 5-7382.

CHI OMEGA

Mrs. Ogden Kiesel of Lafayette, house corporation president, revealed the following names: at the University of California, Karen Gruhler of Lafayette, Jule Noller of Orinda and Mary Terry of Alamo; at UCLA, Connie Cook and Mary Morehead of Orinda.

Chi Omega pledges at other California colleges and universities include: at the University of California at Santa Barbara, Kathy Calhoun of Orinda; at San Jose State College, Meredith Skeen of Concord.

OMEGA NU

Mrs. John Urmson of Orinda is general chairman of a wine tasting party slated for the evening of December 3 in the Brazilian Room at Tilden Park sponsored by Alpha Lambda Chapter of Omega Nu.

Proceeds from this event will benefit Contra Costa Council for the Mentally Retarded.

Mrs. Urmson will be assisted by the Mesdames Jennings Coleman and Robert Whalen of Walnut Creek.

Mrs. D. C. Steele will preside at the business meeting when reports will be given by the chairman of the recent luncheon and fashion show by Mrs. J. R. Quinn of Orinda and her assistants.

Refreshments will be served during the afternoon.

TRI-DELTAS

The Mt. Diablo alumnae of Delta Delta Delta are making final plans for their annual cocktail party and buffet to be held December 2 at 7:30 p.m.

Members and their husbands will attend the event at the unusual contemporary home of the Leslie Guthrie family at 50 Linda Vista, Orinda, designed by the owner.

All Tri-Delta alumnae in the area are invited to attend.

Flicker Unit Entertains New Members

A cocktail hour preceded the luncheon.

Linda Montgomery Weds Phillip Bradshaw, Jr.

La Selva Beach, California, will be the home of newlywed Mr. and Mrs. Charles Phillip Bradshaw, Jr., who were mar- ried in late October in St. Perpetua Church, Lafayette, Father Quinn officiated.

The bride is the former Lin- da Arlene Montgomery, daugh- ter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold H. Montgomery of 991 Hawthorne Drive, Lafayette, a graduate of Acalanes High School and a student at San Jose State College. The groom, also a graduate of Acalanes, is a stu- dent at Foothill College, Los Altos. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bradshaw, live in La Selva Beach.

For her wedding the bride wore a floor length sheath of white miramist taffeta, finish- ed with a scooped neckline with a border of Venice lace. The full overskirt was banded n Venice lace which extended down the side fronts and around the hemline of the skirt. Her shoulder length veil of illusion was held in place by a pearl crown.

Best man and brother of the bride, Robert D. Montgomery, was assisted by ushers Thomas Palsak of Lafayette, Richard Bradshaw of La Selva and Jack Edson of Pleasant Hill, the groom's brother.

Ring bearer was Master Dennis Finn.

Mrs. Montgomery chose rose pink brocade to wear at her daughter's wedding. Her hat was fashioned of feathers. The groom's mother wore a suit- dress of champagne brocade with royal blue accessories.

At Home In Orinda

After a honeymoon in Ha- waii, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anthony Wistort will be at home to friends beginning this week at 8 Las Mesas, Orinda.

The former Alice Giacometti, daughter of Mrs. Lucia Gia- cometti of San Francisco, be- came the bride of Anthony Wistort in St. Frances of As- sisi Church, San Francisco, in late October.

Humpty Dumpty Plans To Sponsor Comedy

At a recent meeting of Humpty Dumpty Chapter of Children's Home Society of California in the Alamo home of Mrs. Robert Downs, plans were completed for the mem- bers and friends of the chap- ter to sponsor the opening night of "The Busy Martyr" Friday.

"The Busy Martyr" is an original comedy which will be presented in the Lafayette Town Hall by the Dramateurs.

Proceeds from this perform- ance will benefit the adoptive work of Children's Home So- ciety.

Also at this meeting, Mes- dames John D. Fehd Jr., of Pleasant Hill and V. C. Ten- strand of Concord were wel- comed into active member- ship by Mrs. B. W. Kim- brough, president.

The next meeting will be held on December 13 at the home of Mrs. Anthony Sulli- van of Concord. This will be an open house meeting to ac- quaint members and their guests with the latest informa- tion in regard to the work of the society, which is supported by 29 chapters in the Bay Area .There are more than 150 chapters and auxiliaries all over California. Mrs. Charles Chapman will hostess, assist- ed by Mesdames Kimbrough, Richard Ormsby and Harry Allendorph.

Auxiliary Will Meet In Orinda

The next general meeting of the Women's Auxiliary to the Contra Costa Dental Society will be held Tuesday in Mike Lynn's Orinda Willows.

There will be a social hour at 11:30 a.m., followed by luncheon at 12:30 p.m.

Mrs. Naida Gilmore Hayes, nationally accredited garden and flower arrangement judge, will speak on "Christ- mas Trends and Traditions in Action."

A specialist in driftwood and dry materials, Mrs. Hayes will demonstrate the art of trim- ming the house for Christmas.

Rummage Sale Planned by Jewish League

The League of Jewish Women, Sisterhood of the Contra Costa Jewish Com- munity Center, has set aside November 30 and December 1 for their fall rummage sale in the Travelers Hotel in Mar- tinez.

Hours for the two-day sale are 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Miss Studley Is Married

Miramonte High School graduate Sheryl Laraine Stud- ley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murray D. Studley of Los Alamitos, was married recent- ly in Long Beach to Charles Stuart Dougherty of Apple Valley.

After a wedding trip along the California coast, the new- lyweds will make their home in west Los Angeles.

Vireos Model Fashions to Aid Center

"Whirling Into Winter" was the theme of the recent fash- ion show presented by Vireos at the new Masonic Lodge in Orinda for the benefit of Mt. Diablo Therapyy yCentyer.

Those modeling from other groups included the Misses Kitty Mika of Ailanthus, Judie Hopkins of Bobbies, Joe Suar- di of the Debs, Sue Portello of the Dianas.

Mothers helping with the show were: the Mesdames F. W. Elkinton, C. C. Calavan and C. E. Block.

Hawaiian Clothing Featured

Trade winds of fashion will be in the air December 4 when the Polynesian Shop presents designs of Hawaii's fashion experts at the Therapy Center Terrace in Walnut Creek.

Teatimers, lounge wear and hostess gowns will be shown at noon, and again at 1 p.m. for luncheon guests of the terrace, 1475 East Newell Avenue.

DESSERTS OF THE WEEK FROM Betty Crocker

Chances are your home will be filled with family and friends over this Thanksgiving weekend. And that's the very best time to have a big, beautiful cake around the house. One like our Mocha Nut Cake, with a rich coffee tang. Or have a wonder- ful-tasting cake casserole for a crowd. It's so easy to be festive with a package of our Betty Crocker Cake Mix on hand.

Cake-of-the-week:
MOCHA NUT CAKE

Bake Betty Crocker Milk Choco- late Cake Mix as directed — ex- cept use cold brewed coffee in place of the water or add 2 to 3 tbsp. powdered instant coffee to cake mix before adding liquid. Cool. Fill and frost with Mocha Nut Frosting: Make Betty Crocker Fluffy White Frosting Mix as directed on pkg.—except substitute hot brewed strong cof- fee for the boiling water or blend 2 tsp. powdered instant coffee into dry ingredients. Fold in ½ cup chopped nuts after beating. Garnish with additional chopped nuts.

STRAWBERRY LEMON CAKE

Bake Betty Crocker Lemon Vel- vet Cake Mix in layers as di- rected on pkg. Remove from pans. Cool. Blend 1 pkg. Betty Crocker Creamy White Frosting Mix with 3 tbsp. soft butter and ¼ cup mashed fresh straw- berries (or ¼ cup thawed frozen strawberries). Beat until smooth, creamy and fluffy. Use to fill and frost cake. Decorate top of cake with 6 to 8 whole straw- berries.

Dessert for a crowd:
MARBLE PEACH CASSEROLE

Heat oven to 350°. Prepare 1 pkg. lemon pie filling mix (not instant) as directed on pkg. Spread in ungreased oblong pan, 13 x 9½ x 2". Arrange 1 can (16 oz.) well drained, sliced peaches over lemon pudding. Prepare Betty Crocker Marble Cake Mix batter as directed on pkg.; pour over peaches. Bake 50 to 60 min. Serve either warm or cold topped with whipped cream. 15 to 18 servings.

Las Lomas Can Thank Its Defense for FAL Title

By GEORGE COLBURN

Las Lomas High School finished its 1961 varsity football season with only one loss.

Its final record was 5-1-2.

The Knights also are the new and undisputed champions of the Foothill Athletic League.

Their record in league play was 4-0-1.

The amazing thing about the Las Lomas team this year is that it was able to accomplish what it did without much of an offense.

IN SIX of their eight games this fall, the Knights could score only one TD. In the other games, they scored four touchdowns each time.

Las Lomas won games, 7-6, 6-2, 7-6, and twice tied games, 7-7. The one game the Knights lost was a 41-7 blasting by Mt. Diablo.

On successive weeks, the Knights' offense came to life, as they defeated Piedmont, 26-14, and Alhambra, 28-0.

Much credit must go to the Knights' defensive unit which played the whole season under constant pressure.

The most recent and best example of their fine play was in the last game of the season.

WITH THE score tied, 7-7, San Ramon had a first down on the Las Lomas six-yard line.

One play gained three yards and it was second down and three on the three.

However, Tackle Bill Staley of Las Lomas busted through San Ramon's line as if no one was there and horsecollared Mivelaz for a seven yard loss.

It was fourth down now, and nine yard to go. There were 36 seconds left in the game.

The Wolves tried a desperation field goal in this situation, but this time it was Jim Elrod breaking through for Las Lomas. He threw up his hand and caught a piece of the ball. The kick fell yards short of the goal posts and the Knights were able to run out the clock.

This was the story of Las Lomas football games all year.

IN THE Acalanes game, Las Lomas held off the Dons in the last minute of play, also, after the sky-high underdogs had picked up a first down on the Knights' four-yard line.

The defensive unit also set up several of the Las Lomas touchdowns.

From there, the Knights moved for a touchdown and an extra point which gave them a tie game and the FAL championship. It was the only time in the game that they came close to scoring.

AND SO the story went all year long.

All year long, it was players like Larry Reardon, Rick Laven, Arlis Loe, Dan Cotlow, Gary Ford, Len Haentjens, Staley Conner, Bob Nordeman and Otto Schatz that came up with fine performances on defense.

Parkmead Wins 'Turkey Bowl' 26-6 Over WC

Parkmead had little trouble with an outmanned Walnut Creek team and easily won the eighth grade feature game of the Seventh Annual Turkey Bowl, 26-6, last Friday night at City Park.

In the seventh grade game, Walnut Creek scored fast and often to wallop the Parkmeads, 33-6.

Last year, Walnut Creek won both games to capture the mythical city championships for both divisions of the recreation department flag football program.

An overflow crowd of more than 1200 persons watched the doubleheader in near-freezing temperatures.

In the eighth grade game, the Parkmeaders regained possession of the traditional Turkey Bowl Game Ball which will now be displayed at their school until next year's game, at least.

THE GAME, as all eighth grade games are, was a replay of the previous year's seventh grade contest which Walnut Creek won, 14-0.

After intercepting a Walnut Creek pass in the opening minutes of play, Holmberg, Parkmead tailback, scampered up the middle for six yards and a touchdown.

Later in the period, Holmberg passed to Bob Buck for the second Parkmead touchdown. Holmberg then hit Frank Jason on a pass play which was good for the two-point conversion and Parkmead had a 14-0 lead.

The Parkmeaders rolled up their third touchdown of the night late in the second quarter when Phil Burton intercepted a pass and outdistanced his pursuers on a 45-yard run to paydirt. The score was 20-0 at the intermission.

In the second half, Walnut Creek still could not move. With End Lewis Gamboa and Guard Dennis Gianfichi spearheading the defense, Walnut Creek was constantly forced to punt.

WALNUT CREEK finally got on the scoreboard in the fourth quarter when John Pelletier hit End Randy Botkins on the 40-yard pass play. Botkins had eluded his defender and was all alone at the 20 when he caught the pass.

Apparently trapped for a loss of a pass situation, Holmberg used his speed to slip away from four Walnut Creek players. He raced 35 yards down the sidelines before being stopped on the two. On the next play, he carried the ball over for the touchdown.

Halfback Claud Bobba paced the Walnut Creek seventh graders in their one-sided win in the first contest of the evening.

He scored three touchdowns and added an extra point while Quarterback Marsh Henderson passed to End Willie Gorman for one TD and score another himself on a 30-yard run.

Behind 33-0, Parkmead tallied its only TD late in the fourth quarter when Arnold Thorstenson raced 78 yards after Parkmead had been shoved back to their own two-yard line.

DVC Wins Finale; Ties for Second In Coast Loop

By HEC HANCOCK

Diablo Valley College Vikings rolled to a 20-8 victory over the Menlo College Oaks last Friday night at Alhambra Field in Martinez to close out their season with a record of seven wins and two defeats.

Losing only to Hartnell of Salinas by a decisive margin, the Vikings completed their most successful season since 1952 with a share of second place in the Coast Conference with a 5-2 record. The other loss was of the cliff-hanger variety, to San Jose City College, 13-12.

Viking quarterback Tom Strain, pitching to his old battery mate from Acalanes, Doug Inman, set up the first two scores. The third tally came on a 68-yard scamper by Pete Demos to put the game beyond the reach of the scrappy Menlo squad.

Much of the Viking success on the evening had to be attributed to Diablo Valley defense. The Viking defenders closed off the Menlo ground game, and while able to pass on occasion, the Oaks couldn't make the big play or move with consistency.

DIABLO'S ground game met with good success. However, the big threat was provided by Strain's passing. While only throwing 11 times, six of which were completed, the threat enabled the Viking ground game to go.

Pitt Wraps Up Title; Pleasant Hill Is Second

IN THE other CCD game last Friday night, Pacifica rose up to knock off Clayton Valley, 7-3, for its first league win of the season. The win gave the Spartans a share of the fourth and last position in the CCD with College Park and Antioch.

Down by two touchdowns, the Devils gambled on a fourth and one situation after taking the second half kickoff, The gamble failed and Pleasant Hill took over on the Diablo 34.

TWO PLAYS later Clark gathered in a pass from Shelton and raced into the end zone on a 34-yard scoring play.

West's conversion made it 21-0 and the Rams were "in."

It's Time to Get in the Ski Line Once Again

By HEC HANCOCK

Well, ol' chum, it's time to open up shop, hang out the Ski Line, and for the next several months converse on subjects having to do with the world of skiing.

The long hot summer, the mellow golden autumn, have both gone their way, and the gleeful cry of the snowbunny can be heard in the land. The falling snow gently blankets the high Sierra, and it's time to speak of wedlin turns, of where to go, what to wear, and who was there.

It's ski time, and time to get in the Ski Line!

Like I was saying last spring before so abruptly interrupted by summer, things are swinging. There are new ski areas to be seen, new lifts to take us to new ski runs, new clothes to wear, and more fun to be had.

So be sure your skis are on straight, and away we go.

HEAVENLY VALLEY, long handicapped by inadequate snow conditions, now appears to be in just the opposite position. During the past year another lift, extending a thousand feet skyward, was constructed. Thus, Heavenly Valley climbs to the 10,000-foot mark, which should enable them to take advantage of the first snowfall, with skiing promised up until June.

This is an unique area, in that the beginning and intermediate skiing is reached only by the chair lift. The same lift brings the skier back to the lodge area when he's ready to call it a day. Thus a guy that is struggling through his snow plow turns is treated to the fantastic vista that in most areas is reserved for only the hot-shot Charlies.

The Heavenly Valley-Lake Tahoe area is preparing for its greatest season. Of the many attractions offered this season will be the biggest professional ski race to ever be conducted in California—January 25 and 26. All the outstanding competitors from throughout the world will participate. Participants will be required to be in attendance for the entire week prior to the race, thereby enabling such as you and me to observe close at hand the ski great and the near great in action. Remember the date, it should be a weekend to take in.

STEVE MYERS up at the Echo Summit ski area reports that all facilities are ready to go. Perched on top of Echo Summit, an elevation of 7400 feet, the Echo Summit ski area should be in operation shortly on the basis of this week's storm. This is one of the finest family areas in the Sierra. A great place for Mom, Dad and the kids to go without all the fol de rol of some of the more posh operations.

Over on the other side of the mountain, an entirely new ski area is busily preparing to open. Alpine Meadows, one valley over from Squaw Valley, will tentatively open its slopes for skiing during December.

An access road, which comes out at Deer Creek Lodge, is being constructed and will open up some great ski areas.

Undoubtedly, the first winter will bring the usual number of snafus every ski resort experiences at the offset. However, the opportunity to ski slopes relatively uncluttered by hurtling human cannonballs should more than offset any inconveniences experienced. It doesn't follow that this area will ever have the grandeur of its queenly neighbor, Squaw Valley. However, it bids to be an area comparable to Sugar Bowl. I'm all for that.

Larry Gabie of Las Lomas Is Scoring Leader

Gabie finished with six touchdowns and one extra point for 37 points. Mivelaz had five touchdowns and 30 points.

Both players scored TDs in the 7-7 tie played last Friday between their two teams.

Acalanes and San Ramon Host Season's Openers

By GEORGE COLBURN
Sports Editor

Three local high schools open play Tuesday, with the rest of the area prep teams getting into action a week from today.

Entertaining Tuesday afternoon are San Ramon and Acalanes in 3:30 p.m. games.

Two teams that just did not have it last year will be meeting in Danville.

College Park, loser of its last 18 games in 1960-61, is the opposition for San Ramon, a five-time winner last season.

ACALANES hosts Vallejo in the other Tuesday game. The Dons are expected to be a title threat in the Foothill League. They finished in a second-place tie with Miramonte in the FAL last season with a 10-5 record. They were 12-7 over all.

Las Lomas, defending FAL champion, hosts College Park, Acalanes hosts Antioch, Miramonte hosts Berkeley, Pleasant Hill is at Livermore, Del Valle is at Skyline and San Ramon holds its invitational tournament with Galileo, the Wolves' opponent in the second game of the evening.

BOTH local league plays play Here is a rundown on the local prep teams and their prospects for the coming season.

ACALANES

The Dons finished in a second-place tie in the FAL last season with a 10-5 record. In Bert Barnett's first year at the helm, Acalanes had a 12-7 record over all.

Even with four starters missing this season, Acalanes is expected to be a title threat in the FAL.

Gone is All-League Forward Tom Strain, forward Doug Treter, guard Dave Stegman and center Dennis Herrick. Reserve forward Glen Abernathy has also graduated.

John Paul Jones is the only starter returning from Barnett's team of last year. Jones, a second team all-league selection, was one of the top scorers in the FAL with an 11-point average. The 5-10 senior will be the team leader this winter.

Seven other lettermen are also returning to bolster the Acalanes basketball stock. The big man in Barnett's plans is Phil Higgins, a 6-5 junior center, who will be in the starting lineup come Tuesday. Also back from last year's squad are a pair of 6-3 forwards—Bill Hayes and Tim Albert. The two seniors will probably form the front line with Higgins.

Three other senior forwards will give the Dons plenty of depth in the front line. Paul Hein (6-3), Larry Logan (6-2) and Dave Bierk (6-2) all lettered last season. Walt Cardinet is the other returning letterman. The 5-11 senior will give experience at the guard spot.

Bobby Gillham, a 5-11 senior, is out for the team after being out a year because of illness. Gillham was a top Bee player when he was a sophomore. He'll see plenty of action at a guard, according to Barnett.

LAS LOMAS

Gone are All-League Guard Rene Brandol, his partner at guard, Rick Scott, and starting forward Bid Murphy.

Besides Nichols, Strelow has forward Rick Inman and guard Greg Bertagnolli returning for their senior years. Inman and Bertagnolli saw plenty of action last season although they were not considered starters.

Junior varsity and Bee letter winners will have to come through if Las Lomas is going to be in the FAL title chase.

Three seniors, Perry Conner, Ken Shortridge and Rich Nye, are JV veterans who will be seeing varsity action for the first time.

Four Bee players, Bob Lindsay, Steve Miles and Bob Breider and Keith Howard, are also high on Strelow's list for this year's team.

MIRAMONTE

Gone from last year's team that finished with a 10-5 league record is the FAL's leading scorer, Jack Gilbert, a 6-6 center. Four other letter winners are also missing this season. Doug Hudson, a forward; Bob Welch, also a forward, plus guards Randy Thaman and Bill Caldwell, have all graduated.

Graw will probably draw two juniors from last year's champion Bee team to help out on the varsity this year. Bruce Nickerson will probably be a guard on the varsity after being the only unanimous choice for all-league honors in the Bee league as a forward. He was Miramonte's leading scorer last season on the Bee team.

The other player is Bob Williams. Both boys played two years on the Bee team.

SAN RAMON

The two starting forwards are missing this year. K. C. Evans was San Ramon's leading scorer while Bob Stellmacher held down the other front post.

Center Jim Howell is the big man in coach Larry DeRushia's plans. The 6-4 senior should be one of the top players in the league this winter. He carried a 10-point average and was among the top 10 in the FAL.

Bob Metez (6-1), Charles Bogue (5-10), Don Rice (5-11), Doug McKinley (6-2) and Mike Fay (5-11) are the other lettermen that give San Ramon good experience for the coming campaign.

From the Bee team is Ron McLaughlin, a sophomore who played regular center as a freshman. He's 6 feet even and will probably be used at forward, according to DeRushia.

DEL VALLE

Reading like a copy of the Trojans football program, Pederson named Bill O'Toole, Bob Kovats, Mal Cameron, Randy Quadros and John Colwell as his top players. Colwell is the only member of last season's starting team that did not play football this fall.

Dave Anderson and Dan Ready are the other two players that lettered last winter for Del Valle.

It's easy to spot Del Valle's biggest weakness. O'Toole is the Trojans' tallest player at an even 6 feet.

O'Toole was the top scorer last season, while Cameron (5-11) did most of the rebounding. Kovate (5-10) is the other forward, while Quadros and Colwell are the guards.

COLLEGE PARK

Entering the school's second year of varsity competition in basketball, coach Jack Bonnickson has a full squad of seniors back from last year's team. Last year College Park was 1-19 and 0-12 in league play.

The forwards are Art Miller (6-1) and Mickey Sytkowski (6-3). At center is Steve Kubaske (6-1). Guards are Bobby Roberts (6-1) and Dennis Wallen (5-8).

Other varsity prospects this winter are Gary Giese, Mickey Thomas, Dick Larscheid, Bob Cattolica, Mickey Walters, Bob Ament and Mark Henderson.

Henderson, a 6-5 senior, did not play last year. Ament is a 5-10 guard who transferred from Mt. Diablo.

PLEASANT HILL

Gone is All-League Guard Terry Hughes, 6-6 center Dick Dole and guard Bob Jensen. Two other lettermen, guard Bruce deKat and forward Tom Tarantino, are also graduated.

Regulars back from the Rams' team that finished 11-9 last season and 6-6 in CCD play are Al Oxley (6-0), Glen Graham 6-3), Ken Friedenback (6-1) and Paul Murphy (6-3).

Play Badminton on Tuesday Evenings

Badminton enthusiasts are reminded that the Las Lomas High School gym and shower facilities are available every Tuesday evening from 7:30 to 10 p.m.

Christmas Bazaar Is Planned by PH Church, Dec. 2

Highlighting the pre-holiday social season for the feminine contingent of Pleasant Hill's Christ the King Catholic Church will be the second annual "Christmas Fair" bazaar.

The affair is slated for Saturday, December 2, in the church auditorium, Gregory Lane at Brandon Road, 1 to 5 p.m.

"Christmas Fair" will offer an excellent opportunity for parishioners and guests to make their gift selections amid a gay, holiday atmosphere. Refreshments will be served throughout the afternoon.

According to co-chairmen Mrs. Paul Kilkenny and Mrs. James Brown, "members of the Women's Club, the Sewing Guild and various other parish groups have been busily engaged these past months turning out an exceptional array of festive gift and decorative items."

Sparkling handmade ornaments, cocktail aprons, men's party vests, dolls, doll clothes, needlework, Advent wreaths, gift pillows, Christmas ceramics, candles, cards, tiny tot ballet costumes and decorative sprays and arrangements will be available.

All proceeds benefit the building fund of Christ the King Church.

Limit Regional District—City

Creation of "regional" multi-purpose districts covering large metropolitan areas to eliminate confusion, duplication and inefficiency has the City of Walnut Creek's approval only under certain conditions.

The new districts must be created only with the express permission of, and be under the direct control of the cities and counties involved, City Manager Lavern Kimball said in Sacramento, last week.

He spoke for Mayor Fred Sanders before the assembly interim committee on municipal and county government.

The committeemen were considering Assembly Bill 2728 and other measures on establishing multi-purpose districts.

KIMBALL said Walnut Creek councilmen are supporting AB 2728 because it has many limitations on future regional districts, including creation only by resolution of county supervisors and city councils involved, and majority voter approval.

The new districts' board of directors will be chosen from those county supervisors and city councilmen, insuring control of the activities of the districts, said Kimball.

Kimball, speaking for the councilmen, took issue with a report published by the Governor's Commission on Metropolitan Area Problems.

Difficulties where existing local governments attempt to provide services in expanding metropolitan areas and boundaries overlap like pieces of a jigsaw puzzle were cited by the report.

"THE WALNUT Creek Council does not agree with the implication in the report that inefficiency exists because several local governmental units are now providing services of an area-wide nature," said Kimball.

Bond issues can be issued by the new district only with a two-thirds majority approval of all voters, Kimball noted.

'Two Big Days' Planned

Surprises in Christmas gifts, decorations and holiday merchandise will be shown for the first time during "Two Big Days" this Friday and Saturday in the Broadway Shopping Center.

"These are two traditional days in Broadway," said B. K. Horne, chairman of the Broadway Merchants Association.

"While Broadway's emphasis is always on quality merchandise, you will find some excellent values offered during our Two Big Days.

"There will be beautiful Christmas decorations, too.

"They have been specially designed and manufactured for Broadway, and some will strike you as being very unusual.

"You'll enjoy seeing them, and you will probably get some new ideas on decorating your own home at the same time," Horne declared.

"In Broadway, those first two days when we present our Christmas surprises always were called the two big days, even before we gave them the formal title.

"Our customers look, look and then look some more. It's work for us to get everything ready, but it's the kind of work we like," Horne declared.

'Roundup' Girls Selected by Area Council

Sixteen Senior Girl Scouts have been selected by the Diablo Valley Area Girl Scout Council to attend the 1962 Roundup to be held in Vermont next July.

Meeting the necessary qualifications are: Caryl Morris of Danville, Troop 210; Maryanne Kearns and Jean Neben of Lafayette, Troop 61; Roberta Nicols of Orinda, Troop 61, and Ann Clyatt, Janet Jones and Leslie Smith of Orinda, Troop 156, and Susan Dowell from Troop 370 and Vicki Maffei from Troop 187, both of Pleasant Hill.

The contingent from Walnut Creek includes: Connie Davis and Judy Warren, Troop 370; Teen Dawson, Judy Jacobsen and Arteena Rollman, Troop 277, and Cathy Reeser and Barbara Winslow, Troop 378.

Three alternates who will receive the complete Roundup Training with the selectees are: Judy Swanson of Orinda, Troop 156; Valerie West of Walnut Creek, Troop 378, and Sharon Torrey of Pleasant Hill, Troop 283.

Rummage Sale Sponsored by Palsy Society

The annual rummage sale sponsored by the Contra Costa Cerebral Palsy Society will be held at the Concord National Guard Armory, 2925 Willow Pass Road, today and Saturday.

Doors will be open from 9 to 9 on Friday and 9 to 4 on Saturday.

Gym Clinic Held in PH

A gymnastics clinic for teachers of physical education in Contra Costa County schools was conducted by the Contra Costa Unit, California Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation Wednesday at College Park High School, Pleasant Hill.

Four gymnastic demonstrators were Howard Moorman, College Park High School, rebound tumbling; Jack Smith, Pacifica High School, free exercise; Hal Frey, University of California, parallel bars; and John Ostarella, University of California, side horse.

2-1 Vote Favors McCunn Over Personnel Council

The governing board of the Contra Costa Junior College District Monday night by a 2-1 vote upheld District Superintendent Drummond J. McCunn and turned down the district's personnel advisory council in a dispute over the amount of salary a newly hired chemistry instructor at Diablo Valley College should receive.

As a matter of "justice" and because the "original error" was made by a former DVC dean of instruction, McCunn urged that the salary of $6890 a year offered Douglas M. Flynn to bring him to the West Coast from Chicago, Illinois, be paid through October of 1962, by which time he is expected to make up a deficiency of four units of work.

The PAC, through spokesman William S. Morgan, opposed the salary scale, maintaining that the four missing units should cost Flynn a $350 reduction.

Board President William J. Kretzmer of Richmond and George R. Gordon of Martinez voted in favor of McCunn's recommendation, while Glenn L. Clemetson of Richmond voted against it.

Morgan expressed the fear that McCunn's reversal of the PAC stand — which was recommended after Flynn carried out normal appeal procedure—would hamstring future PAC usefulness.

The final decision rests with the governing board, he said. McCunn is chairman of the PAC, but casts a ballot only in the event of a tie vote.

Gordon described the problem as a "matter of procedure." Declaring that the rights of appeal should be preserved, he suggested that the PAC "should do something about your system if you don't want the superintendent to have the right of review."

Harold B. Smith Is President Of Store Chain

Harold B. Smith, Jr., has been elected president of Smiths Clothiers, whose store in Broadway Shopping Center is among 10 stores in the Smith chain.

Smith was also elected chairman of the board.

He said, "Smiths has just completed the first phase of an extensive expansion program. Five new stores have been opened this year."

Smiths will continue to grow and expand as suitable locations for new stores become available, he said.

It was also announced that Stephen Smith will continue as vice president of the firm, and will also become secretary.

Gibson Wins Certificate

Unclothed Man

An unclothed man leaped out of some bushes, frightening a 16-year-old girl walking along Walker Avenue, Walnut Creek police reports indicate. The girl was not molested. Her mother reported the incident.

Symphony Series Has Convenient Bus Service

Bus reservations for the "Behind the Hills" Symphony series are being taken by Mrs. Stuart Campbell, CL 4-4527.

Starting December 8, the series includes five performances at the War Memorial Opera House, concluding March 23.

Symphony lovers for the past three years have had the convenience of round trip bus service, planned especially for them.

Those this side of the tunnel may board a bus at Walnut Creek, Lafayette or Orinda. Buses leave Walnut Creek at 12:30 p.m.

Mrs. Campbell said that reservations have already been taken in sufficient number to fill one bus, but more reservations are needed for a full load on a second bus.

Today is the last day reservations may be accepted for the buses and she urges those interested to call immediately.

The San Francisco Symphony Association is celebrating its 50th anniversary this year. The five matinee performances are Robert Casadesus, pianist, December 8; Austin Reller, violinist, January 19; Bach Aria Group, February 9; Thomas Schippers, guest conductor, March 2 and George Szell, guest conductor, March 23.

Performances begin at 2:15 p.m. The buses arrive at the Opera House at 2 p.m. and depart at 4 p.m., returning to Orinda 5 p.m., Lafayette, 5:15 p.m. and Walnut Creek 5:30 p.m.

Range Finds Home as Sun Saddles Up

H. J. DeKat of 60 Geary Court, Walnut Creek, sold a gas range with his want ad in The Sun.

Mrs. E. A. Vitt of Danville sold 30 pounds of walnuts with her Sun want ad.

The credit goes to the Sun's "5-in-1" system, where your want ad goes into the nearly 50,000-circulation Sun Shopping News on Wednesday, and then into the four Sun subscription newspapers on Friday.

The Sun Shopping News is distributed free in the central county.

The subscription newspapers are the Walnut Creek Sun, Orinda Sun, Lafayette Sun and Pleasant Hill Sun.

Your 14-word want ad will cost only $1.60 to run in the five papers.

Phone an adwriter now! Call YE 4-5000, 284-4444, or CL 4-4444.

Fallout Shelters Not Encouraged, Only Regulated–Say Public Bodies

Heated discussion on the proposed county ordinance for regulating construction of underground fallout shelters lasted for two hours, Tuesday, and county supervisors finally delayed consideration until November 28.

Walnut Creek city councilmen, however, introduced their city ordinance listing building permits requirements for shelters Wednesday night without any public debate.

Both public bodies agreed generally that the new laws are intended mainly to prevent the shelters from collapsing on their occupants, rather than insure protection in event of nuclear attack.

WITHOUT such a law, many county and city residents will build faulty shelters, without proper safety features, endangering their own lives, both groups said.

Objectors to the county law included Bert Schwarzschild of San Francisco, who said, "Once we accept the idea of shelters; once we believe we can adequately protect ourselves against atomic weapons, we have taken a large step toward the acceptance of nuclear war."

Joseph Connery, deputy county administrator, emphasized that the new county law would only control construction, not encourage it. He said shelters are going to be built with or without building requirements.

The ordinance when adopted, will include design standards, occupancy limits, location and sale of prefabricated shelters, he said.

THE COUNTY has issued permits for about 50 shelters, most of them in the last four months, said Rudolph Kraintz, county building inspector.

Other objectors to the ordinance were Mrs. Marion Patterson of El Cerrito, representing the women for peace organization; Dr. Lucile Green, professor of philosophy and humanities at Oakland City College and councilman Douglas Page, who did not appear but whose statement was read.

Before the Walnut Creek councilmen introduced their city ordinance Wednesday night, they noted that Page objects in principle to the ordinance, but agrees that the ordinance is the best possible if such a law must be adopted. Page was absent from the councilmen's Wednesday night meeting.

A number of revisions pertaining to building requirements were read into the ordinance, on Page's earlier request.

THE COUNCIL also adopted a policy statement saying that the ordinance requirements are not adequate for a "blast" shelter, that the city gives no guarantee that the shelter requirements will protect against blast, heat or fallout.

The City of Walnut Creek does not encourage shelter construction, and does not endorse any commercial seller of shelters or type of shelter, councilmen said.

There have been only two applications for shelter building permits in Walnut Creek.

Artists Given Top Awards At Antioch

Katy Madsen of Walnut Creek won the first prize and "Best in Show" in oils. Jim Little, president of the Diablo Art Association, won second place in oils.

Thyra Schaefer, Orinda artist, took a third in oils and second place in graphic arts. First place in watercolors went to Fred Pring of Danville. Other firsts were: Norma Martinetti, mosaics, and Jeanne Bettersworth, ceramics.

Among those set up for the month of November are: Jim Little, in Bank of America, Walnut Creek; Ruth Hussey, Village Theatre, Danville; Robert Elsocht, Compton's, Walnut Creek, and Delora Frame in Seven artists of the Diablo San Ramon Library.

Other artists exhibiting in Walnut Creek include: Thyra Schaefer, Kaiser Hospital; Ira Wilt, Nut Bowl; Louise Swanson, Walnut Bowl; Beth Bernes, Pillsbury's; Diana Monk, Ralph, Joseph and Owen's; Barbara Gilson, Coe's Beauty Salon, and May C. White in Sherman Clay.

Engineering Jobs Are Open

Contra Costa County Civil Service Department announced it is recruiting applicants to fill positions as engineering aid, ($375-$458) and senior engineering aid, ($415-505).

Two years of college with courses in engineering may be substituted for the year of required experience.

Meeting Held

Giant Candy Canes Will Cheer WC

Giant candy canes, 40 feet high, will be placed in the intersection of Main Street and Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Walnut Creek, providing a unique setting for the 1961 Christmas celebration.

There will be another 200 smaller candy canes attached to parking meters in the Broadway Shopping Center and through the city.

"We hope that these unusual decorations, taking the place of the usual overhead decorations, will give Walnut Creek a Christmasy look which will be different from others," said James Neighbor, Christmas decorations chairman of the Walnut Creek Area Chamber of Commerce.

"We are eager to get the residents' reaction to the candy canes. We think the effect will be spectacular," said Neighbor.

Automobile Instructors Will Organize

Instructors in driver education and training in Contra Costa County's 40 high schools will meet in Concord November 20 to consider forming an association.

Dr. H. Frank Bradford, director of administrative services, county schools, has called the meeting for 8 p.m. at Mt. Diablo High School.

It consists of instruction in the laws that govern driving in California and the importance of safe driving.

Stores Open Every Night Starting Dec. 4

Stores in the Broadway Shopping and others in the Walnut Creek area will be open every night, Monday to Friday, beginning December 4, for evening Christmas shopping.

Until then, Broadway stores are open Monday and Friday nights, with some stores also open Thursday night.

Tapes Are Demonstrated

A "package" of tapes, films and books with which to teach German to junior high and high school age students were demonstrated to foreign language teachers yesterday at the office of County Superintendent Floyd Marchus in Pleasant Hill.

Produced by a national publishing company, the package "combines the use of tapes, motion pictures, filmstrips, student test and teacher's manual" and emphasizes comprehension of the language and speaking, said Mrs. Mary Louise Nissen, consultant in secondary education.

Service Pins Are Awarded

Twenty-five year service pins were recently awarded to Contra Costa County employees Robert Wymer of 3392 Ridge Road, Lafayette, assistant county welfase disector, and Richard James of 998 San Miguel Drive, Walnut Creek, deputy probation officer.

Gladys Keyes of 2310 Tice Valley Road, Walnut Creek, director of public health nursing, received a 15-year pin, and Donnie Duane of 3548 Brook Street, Lafayette, typist clerk, a 10-year pin.

Make Fall Clean Up a Family Affair for Fun

If fall cleanup in the garden seems a chore and otherwise bores you, you're not alone. Gardeners have approached it reluctantly since there have been gardens to clean up. But the effort is worth every minute of it come next spring.

MOREOVER, when approached on one of those glorious days which are typical of California's late fall, the garden cleanup can be downright enjoyable. Choose such a day and make it a family affair. Youngsters might not appreciate it now, but the memory of burning leaves and brisk sunshine will draw them back to the garden in future years.

As a starting "chore," rake all leaves out of flower beds and shrub borders. Most of these can go on the compost pile if you have one, but any that are mildewed or otherwise afflicted should be burned.

Rose leaves should not be composted. Burn or donate them to the local dump. The same goes for dead and spotted leaves from the iris bed. Get them out of the garden.

Next, cut back faded annuals and perennials. Delphiniums, dahlias and perennial phlox are apt to carry mildew spores and should not be burned. Annuals and other perennials that are obviously "clean" can go into making compost.

LIFT TUBEROUS begonias when their tops begin to die back. Let them finish the drying process out of the ground until the stems separate easily from the tubers. Never let the tuber winter over in the ground where either frost or wetness could do it in. Begonia tops are not for the compost pile, either.

When the general cleanup is done, the California Association of Nurserymen suggests turning your attention to improving the soil and planting new bedding plants. Commercial soil conditioners combined with manure and bonemeal will do wonders for compacted soils over the winter. And a generous helping of manure in all plant beds and around shrubs is like money in the bank. It will return a dividend of healthier plants and better bloom.

College 'Cabinet' Talk Moved to Larger Room

The Contra Costa Junior College District governing board meeting November 27 has been shifted from the district administration offices in Martinez to Diablo Valley College, Pleasant Hill.

Purpose of the move is to provide for more adequate meeting quarters for the general public and faculty members.

Dr. Edwin A. Lee of Los Angeles, dean emeritus of UCLA's school of education, will discuss an administrative analysis report he filed with the board last May.

Board president William J. Kretzmer of Richmond emphasized, however, that Dr. Lee's appearance will be as a consultant to the district and that his report will not be open to general discussion unless time permits.

Aside from necessary items of business, arrangements have been made to turn the entire meeting over to Dr. Lee.

The Los Angeles educator in his report of last May recommended the formation of a superintendent's "cabinet" under which the two college directors would become assistant superintendents under District Superintendent Drummond J. McGunn.

As such the directors could be given four-year contracts, rather than being hired on a year-to-year basis.

McGunn has countered with a revised chart of organization calling for the appointment of a district-wide personnel director, a suggestion that has drawn opposition from a number of faculty members.

St. Mary's Alumni Drive Has Begun

An alumni fund drive goal of $47,000 has been set by the Mt. Diablo Chapter of St. Mary's College Alumni Association.

SANTA'S SLEIGH was never more gorgeous! Boys and girls, their parents too, will be riding it free of charge, December 4-6, in Broadway Shopping Center. It's 40 feet long, loaded with lights, pulled by life-size mechanical reindeer. Santa will talk to each boy and girl, too. The sleigh will return to the North Pole after the three days, but Santa will remain here until Christmas.

Local children (and their parents) will be able to ride about in the amazing sleigh, which has mechanized life-size reindeer, 140 colored, flashing lights, a revolving lighted Christmas tree, two small slots for letters to Santa and a record player for Christmas music.

Santa's sleigh will provide free rides for three days, December 4-6, from 10 to 12 noon, 1:30 to 5 and 7 to 9, according to B. K. Horne, chairman of the sponsoring Broadway Merchants Association.

SANTA will send his sleigh back to the North Pole after the three days but will remain himself in Broadway until Christmas.

The sleigh was built at a cost of more than $20,000, and has leather-padded seats, a public address system and room for 40 to 50 boys and girls in addition to Santa in the back.

SANTA WILL be sure to talk to each and every child who takes a ride on the sleigh. He will ask them if they have been minding their parents, saying their prayers each night and thinking about what they want for Christmas.

The Broadway Merchants Association has also arranged for Santa and his sleigh to visit young people in the area on December 3.

The schedule: Edgar Cottage, Juvenile Hall, 9 to 10:45 a.m.; St. Michael and All Angels Episcopal Church, Concord, 11:20 a.m.; Shadelands Ranch in Ygnacio Valley, 3 to 4 p.m.; Hillside Coverant Church, Walnut Creek, 5:30 to 6.

The young people of the Lynn Training Center for Retarded Children will also come to Broadway to ride on the sleigh, December 3.

Automatic Movie Given College

A gift of an automatic movie projector and screen to the Diablo Valley College Science Center in Pleasant Hill was accepted "with appreciation" by the governing board of the Contra Costa Junior College District, which met at Contra Costa College in San Pablo recently.

The gift, valued at $2000, was presented in behalf of the Dow Chemical Company, Pittsburg, by Glenn L. Allen, Jr., industrial relations manager.

It was placed in the Science Center museum by Dow Chemical last December on a loan basis, along with exhibits from many of Contra Costa County's other major industrial firms.

Puerto Rico Color Film

The second of a series of National Audubon Society screen tours — the first natural history color film ever made about Puerto Rico—will be shown in the gymnasium of Diablo Valley College at Concord next Wednesday at 8 p.m.

The presentation will be free to the public.

Mrs. Arnaud Is 1st Veep, Medic Women

Mrs. Louis Arnaud of 15 Blade Way, Walnut Creek, has been elected first vice president of the Contra Costa Unit, Women's Auxiliary to the Alameda-Contra Costa Medical Association.

Mrs. George Weston of Walnut Creek is secretary and Mrs. John Cheredes of Walnut Creek is treasurer.

Mrs. Milton Greengard of El Cerrito is president; Mrs. Albert Greenberg, second vice president; Mrs. Donald Miller of Richmond, corresponding secretary.

Mesdames Irving Fien, Cyril Bruno, Thomas St. George, Sol Draznin and Walter Taylor are members of the Health Career Committee, and will also serve on a nursing scholarship committee.

CONCORD: Concord Shopping Center

Special Bus Has Facts on U.S. Army

Young men interested in enlisting in the U. S. Army nave been invited along with their parents to visit the "Unlimited Opportunities" bus located in Broadway Shopping Center, Walnut Creek.

The bus, specially designed for conferences and discussions, will be parked next to the Anita Shop.

Master Sergeant William Kerr, a 15-year veteran, will be among the Army men ready to explain possibilities for enlistees.

On Tuesdays and Thursdays he will be at the Army Reserve Center, 1768 Locust Street, Walnut Creek. On Mondays and Fridays he will be at the Lafayette sheriff's substation.

Students Travel

Ten Diablo Valley College students attended the opening session of California's second Governor's Conference on Youth held in Long Beach last week.

Thea Hart of Danville was among them.

Wheel Goods Needed for Children

The Christmas Bureau, sponsored by the Volunteer Bureau at 2030 N. Main Street, Walnut Creek, needs used wheel goods for its Christmas giving program.

"Look in your carport, garage, barn and basement. You may find some outgrown bike, buggy, scooter or wagon that would delight a whole family full of children at Christmas time," said bureau chairman Mrs. Louis Pitto.

Next Friday is the collection deadline.

Contributions may be deposited at any of the Chevron Stations at 2895 N. Main, Walnut Creek; Main and Broadway, Walnut Creek; 11 Orinda Way, Orinda; 3632 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette.

Gardeners Plan Dinner, Talks

Congressman John Baldwin and Dr. Walter Hopkins will speak at the annual Conservation Day dinner of the Mt. Diablo Men's Garden Club, Monday evening at 7 at Kellogg's Restaurant, Walnut Creek.

Baldwin will discuss Point Reyes National Seashore Park in Marin County and the wilderness bill.

Consumer Counsel Woman to Speak Dec. 1

Mrs. Helen Ewing Nelson of California's first State Consumer Council, will speak at a public meeting sponsored by the Democratic Clubs of Central Contra Costa County, December 1 at 8 p.m. at the Pleasant Hill Monument Bowl.

Assemblyman Jerome Waldie will attend.

Prior to her appointment, Mrs. Nelson served as assistant chief of the Department of Industrial Relations, Bureau of Labor Statistics and Research.

She has also been research assistant to the Heller Committee for Research in Social Economics at the University of California and economist for the Price Division of the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Mrs. Nelson received her bachelor of arts degree at the University of Colorado, where she was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. She received her master's degree at Mills College and did advanced graduate work in economics and statistics at the University of California at Berkeley.

Action taken by the Office of the Consumer Counsel has included measures to maintain food quality and safety standards, to curb fraud and misrepresentation in sales and service rackets, publication and dissemination of information concerning credit costs, and the successful legislative campaign to repeal sales taxes on prescription drugs.

The meeting is jointly sponsored by the Democratic Clubs of Lafayette, Danville, Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill, Concord, Martinez, Antioch and Pittsburg.

Classes for Retarded Grow

Nearly 100 of the severely mentally retarded are enrolled in classes operated by the county superintendent's office.

This, said Dr. Marchus, is because the relatively small numbers in which they are found in the individual school districts make area-wide classes desirable.

Mt. Diablo Unified District alone has classes for the severely retarded, of whom 23 are enrolled in two classes.

Contra Costa County Board of Education has learned from the program's coordinator, Lorenne Pitts, that the county office is able for the first time to accommodate all severely mentally retarded children eligible to enter the program.

Training centers for severely mentally retarded are maintained as follows: Jefferson School at Richmond, enrolling 64 children in six classes; Valley School at Alamo, 12 children in one class; and Lone Tree School near Brentwood, 21 children in two classes.

Class size for the severely mentally retarded is restricted by state law to 12. Eighteen is the maximum per class for the educable retarded.

Dr. Marchus' office provides special training of the latter type for 26 children from East Contra Costa County communities at Hazel Woolley School, Knightsen, and 12 children of the Rodeo area.

Six school districts, Miss Pitts informed the board, conduct 20 classes for 272 junior and senior high school age educable mentally retarded students.

Get-Acquainted

Social Effect Of Rapid Transit To Be Discussed

"Social Ramifications of Rapid Transit" will be discussed by George L. McDonald at a luncheon meeting of the Central Community Welfare Council, November 28, at the Nut Bowl, Pleasant Hill.

"'1970 is Tomorrow,' a filmstrip on Rapid Transit, will be shown by McDonald.

He will lead a discussion on how local homes will be affected by the plans.

Mrs. William E. Ferguson is program chairman.

McDonald has been associated with the Bay Area Rapid Transit District for two years. Prior to that, he was employed for five years by Henry J. Kaiser Companies, specializing in engineering services and in consumer products. McDonald and his family are residents of Orinda. The public is invited.

"Curses! foiled again... by modern electric heat!"

Watch Mr. Chills take it "on the lam" when electric heat appears on the scene! Cold spots are banished forever . . . hard-to-heat or added-on rooms stay liveable all year long. There are many electric warming ideas (see diagrams) and, of course, portable heaters. You save money, too, because there's a minimum of installation expense. Why don't you install electric heat soon . . . and foil Villain Chills from the start!

Now Jimmy knows why it's our family bank!

"It was a banner day when our son opened a savings account with money he had earned. And our Wells Fargo American Trust manager made it a really big occasion. He presented Jimmy with a passbook and welcomed him as a customer. We could see our boy felt he had a new friend as well as a new account.

"Every child should learn the value of money, and we know our friends at the bank will help Jimmy just as they've always helped us. That's why our savings and checking accounts, our safe deposit box, our home loan are all at Wells Fargo American Trust—our 'family' bank."

YEAR 'ROUND COMFORT

FEDDERS

Four Seasons
AIR CONDITIONER

Biggest bargain in air conditioning when you figure the extra hours of comfort you'll enjoy with this famous year round heats-and-cools Air Conditioner. Delivers a ton of summer cooling (12,000 BTU's) . . . and 10,000 BTU's* of heating when it's zero outdoors. (That's as much as most central heating radiators and registers supply.) Use it for converted attics . . . basements . . . added rooms . . . those uncomfortable rooms where discomfort is usually a year-round problem.

*NEMA STAND. CN-1-1960

We carry Fedders Cools-And-Heats Air Conditioners of every type and rating. Prices start at 279.95

Why freeze your husband's shirts? or put a clock radio in the berry patch? or take your fiancee to a gas station? See the answers with your copy of The Sun in Suburbia Today in "Getting Around," in the November issue.

Plastic Pool Floated by The Right Word

Allen Griffith of 2355 San Miguel Drive, Walnut Creek, sold his plastic swimming pool with a want ad in The Sun.

E. J. Leonardo of 123 Scenic Drive, Orinda, sold an 18-foot trailer with a Sun want ad.

Mrs. J. B. Hargis of 3921 Juniper Drive, Concord, sold an "old fashioned" bassinet, a dresser and some almonds with a single Sun want ad.

They are due to The Sun "5-in-1" system where each want goes into the Sun Shopping News and into nearly 50,000 central county homes on Wednesday, and into the four subscription newspapers on Friday.

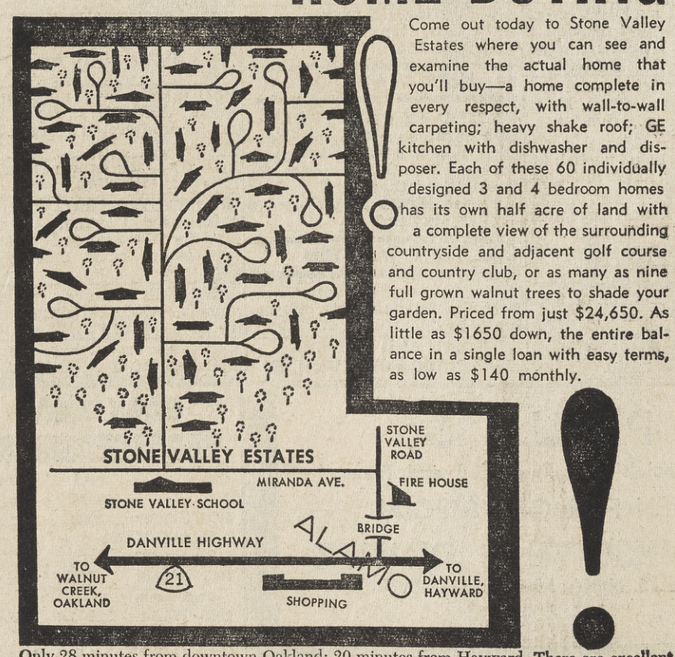
now TAKE the GUESSWORK OUT of HOME BUYING



Come out today to Stone Valley Estates where you can see and examine the actual home that you'll buy—a home complete in every respect, with wall-to-wall carpeting; heavy shake roof; GE kitchen with dishwasher and disposer. Each of these 60 individually designed 3 and 4 bedroom homes has its own half acre of land with a complete view of the surrounding countryside and adjacent golf course and country club, or as many as nine full grown walnut trees to shade your garden. Priced from just $24,650. As little as $1650 down, the entire balance in a single loan with easy terms, as low as $140 monthly.

Only 28 minutes from downtown Oakland; 20 minutes from Hayward. There are excellent shopping centers in Alamo and Walnut Creek (7 mins.), and the Stone Valley elementary school is a short walk away. One thing that you'll have to savor for yourself is the atmosphere at Stone Valley Estates. Choose today from three furnished models. From Oakland take Hwy. 24, then Hwy. 21. From Hayward take Hwy. 21 via Crow Canyon. In Alamo turn onto Stone Valley Rd., go 1 mile to Miranda. Turn left to the model homes.
